

Invite Public to Chicago's Uptown Civic Concerts

North shore residents have so well appreciated and supported the Uptown civic concerts which for the past two years have been given for a season of six Sunday afternoons in Arcadia auditorium, near the Wilson avenue "L" station, that the Uptown Chicago Civic Music association, under the auspices of which they are entering upon their third season, has reasonable assurance of another successful year.

The series opens Sunday, October 31, with a program by the Russian Symphonic choir. The Marmoin dancers and the Chicago Symphony Players will give the second Sunday's program; Charles Hackett and Herbert Kirschner, violinist, the third; Claudia Muzio the fourth; Edith Mason and the Edgewater Beach hotel orchestra, the fifth, and Cesare Formichi and Jose Eschaniz, the sixth and closing Sunday, December 5.

The history of the Uptown civic concerts dates back to 1924 when a group of north shore citizens persuaded the Uptown Chicago Chamber of Commerce, of which George F. Nixon was president, to sponsor the first season. It was their theory that good music by the world's great artists presented at popular prices on the north side of Chicago and not necessitating a trip to the loop would be supported by north shore residents.

Miss Marian Osten, 913 Cherry street, entertained her bridge club, Tuesday, October 12, at her home. Miss Osten is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Osten.

Russian Drama Lectures Attract Wide Attention

"Russian Drama," a series of lectures by Theodore B. Hinckley, are being attended by a large number of women on the north shore. This is the third year that the Drama club of Evanston has engaged Mr. Hinckley for its lecture course and his popularity as a speaker on matters pertaining to the theater has constantly increased. Although the series this year is entitled "Russian Drama" yet excursions will be made into other fields and the current plays of New York and Chicago will be discussed.

As each lecture is a unit in itself members join the course at any time bringing guests to make up for any absences which they have incurred. The lectures are being given every Thursday morning at 11 o'clock for one hour at the home of Mrs. Harrison B. Riley, 1822 Sheridan road, Evanston. University credit is given for the course if a satisfactory examination is passed when it is completed. Registrations may be made through Mrs. Carlos Andrews or Mrs. Harrison B. Riley, it is explained.

Thursday, October 14, Mr. Hinckley discussed "French Culture and the Russian Theater" with special reference to the influence of Catherine the Great, Von Viezen and Krilov. On October 21 the subject will be "Russian Drama Grows Up" and the importance of the names of Ostrovski Pushkin and Greboyedov will be explained.

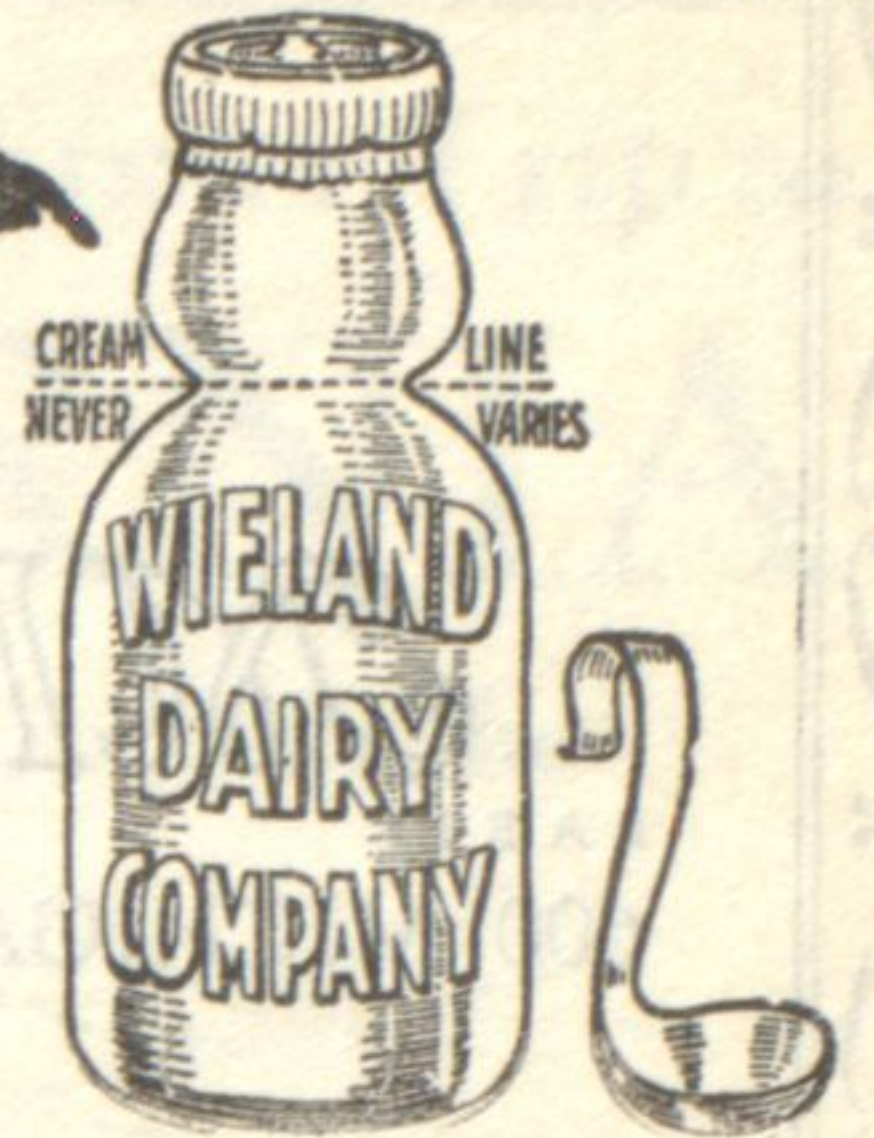

Mrs. R. F. Hudson of 888 Willow road entertained twenty-four guests at a bunco party, Friday afternoon, October 8.

Why do you iron the old way?

The Rainbow Automatic Ironer will iron practically everything in one-third to one-quarter the time—a shirt in five minutes, children's rompers in three to five minutes. Dresses, ruffles, curtains and the linens, are all beautifully ironed in almost no time.

You can do this yourself.

Best of all you are seated comfortably while you guide the pieces. A gentle touch with your finger tips on the control bar and the motor does the work for you.

Why iron the old way when you can have the Rainbow.
