Crisp Autumn Days Add to Thrills of Riding Club Hunts

Fall is a time of riding and hunting, and the Indian Hill Riding club combined both sports recently in one of its now famous drag-hunts, which took place October 9, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. The hunters rode about five miles cross-country, over sixty or seventy of the new fences constructed by the club.

Among those participating in the hunt were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peabody Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson, Mrs. Wilson A. Reid, Ernest H. Hicks, Arthur M. Cox.

Now that fall weather has at last settled down into cool, sunshiny days, the club is planning many hunts. Mondays and Wednesdays it will hold a run at 6:30 in the morning, and Tuesdays and Saturdays one at 2:30 in the afternoon. A horse show has not been announced for this fall due to the unfavorable weather, and the days will be devoted entirely to riding.

The fox hunts take place mostly in territory west on Winnetka avenue to Happ road, north on Happ to Willow road, and west on Willow to Klotz road, and the rides cover about fifteen to twenty miles of country, north to Northbrook and south to Lake avenue, Wilmette. About seventy fences for jumping have been constructed, fences that are not destroyed after each run. Several hounds from the Bloomfield Hunt and some from Kentucky have been added to the Indian Hill packs, and many thoroughbred horses in the stables provide the finest of riding.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hope of Coronado, Cal., announce the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Aborn, to Louis Hunter Gwinn, ensign in the United States Navy, on Saturday, October 9, at Coronado. The Hopes formerly were residents of Wilmette.

The bride was gowned in white chiffon velvet made in bouffant style, trimmed with rose point lace and carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley and orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Winifred Metzel, wore light pink taffeta trimmed in orchid chiffon and carried lavender sweet peas and pink baby roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. James P. Prindle, wore a green metal cloth gown and carried yellow baby roses and lavender sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Nathaniel W. James of Evanston, Mrs. Truman Metzel of Highland Park, Miss Margaret Neilson and Miss Eleanor Buckman of Wilmette and Miss Ethel Berger of Kenilworth, were in frocks of a deeper shade of pink taffeta trimmed in an even darker shade. Will Tell of School in Salonika at Next Meeting of Society

Miss Grace M. Elliott, teacher in the Greek-American school for girls in Salonika will speak before the Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church at its next meeting, Wednesday, October 20.

Miss Elliott will tell the story of the phenomenal growth of the school in which she teaches, which is a result of the world war conditions. When the allied army came into Salonika, the Thessalonica of Paul, and following the Smyrna disaster there was great demand for English teachers, and the school grew by leaps and bounds.

It seems that Greek girls form the largest proportion of the students in the school, although some American and Greek refugees have been cared for at the school.

Miss Elliott's talk will include the story of the making of the first desks. Soldiers stationed in the city made these desks out of the boxes kerosene tins were shipped in. And when the English soldiers withdrew from Salonika they left all of their remaining supplies, from beds to quinine to help the school along.

Following the luncheon Dr. Ernest Bournier Allen of Pilgrim Congregational church, of Oak Park will speak to the society. Dr. Allen who took a most interesting trip around the Mediterranean and through the Holy Land, will speak on "World Friendship."

The morning program will be devoted to sewing, with devotional exercises preceding lunch, in charge of Mrs. Charles Karnopp.
