

VILLAGE THEATRE

Thomas Meighan's newest Paramount feature, "Tin Gods," is a real knockout! It is to be shown at the Village theater next Monday and Tuesday, October 18 and 19.

Supporting Tom, are the two featured women, Renee Adoree, heroine of "The Big Parade," and Aileen Pringle, fairy princess of a hundred plots. William Powell, Hale Hamilton and a little boy, Delbert Whitten, Jr., also do capable work.

"Tin Gods" is the old, yet ever new story of "the man who came back." Tom is introduced as the husband of a politically ambitious woman who ruins his love by her lack of interest in their home. Due to her neglect, their child is killed, and Tommy leaves for South America.

A comedy, "Beauty a la Mud," and a Pathe news reel will complete the bill.

Lionel Barrymore, brother of John and Ethel, the eldest son of the great Maurice Barrymore, has recently completed his most pretentious screen offering, "The Bells," which will be the feature attraction next Wednesday and Thursday, October 20 and 21.

"The Bells," which provided the immortal Sir Henry Irving with his greatest role, was adapted for the screen and directed by James Young. It was produced by Chadwick Pictures Corporation, sponsors of several of Barrymore's finest photodramas.

This initial Barrymore invasion into the field of true stage classics for his screen vehicles promises a rare treat for the lovers of the best in motion pictures.

With this picture will be shown "Jellyfish," a Mermaid comedy, and a Pathe review.

What young man has not dreamed of returning to the old home town in a limousine and a fortune at his command, to be welcomed by the cheering villagers?

It is doubtful if any enthusiastic youth ever set forth to wrest wealth and fame from the universe without the mental reservation that he would return and show the home folks they had not appreciated his exceptional talents.

This distinctly human trait provides the basis for the plot of "Rolling Home," William A. Seiter's latest Universal production starring Reginald Denny, which comes to the Village theater next Friday and Saturday, October 22 and 23.

Denny plays the role of the ambitious wanderer who strays from "Lowers Falls" to conquer the world and shame the Rockefellers and Morgans with his business sagacity and financial wizardry.

There will also be an Our Gang comedy, "Mary, Queen of Tots," and a Pathe news reel.

NORSHORE THEATRE

With collegiate life again in sway, the Freshman duly enrolled and subdued, and college sport news on everyone's lips, the Norshore theatre catches the spirit and announces a "Campus Week" to start next Thursday.

The principal feature of this unusual program is the college romance, "The Campus Flirt" starring Bebe Daniels and introducing to films, Charles Paddock of cinderpath fame. The picture presents a series of very amusing college situations to embellish the romantic theme. El Brendel, stage comedian is in the cast and the subtitles, a feature in themselves, were written by Rube Goldberg, the cartoonist.

The feature starting Sunday is "Across the Pacific" the first important film based on incidents of the Spanish American war. Monte Blue plays the leading role.

THE CAMPUS

"The Blue Eagle," featured by naval scenes in which Col. Sterrett Ford, widely known military expert, appears, and starring George O'Brien and Janet Gaynor, is the current screen showing at the Campus theater. When the bill changes Saturday the new picture will be a western desert story, "3 Bad Men" with settings in the Black Hills country. Next Wednesday the feature will be "Womanpower," the screen version of Harold MacGrath's Red Book story, "You Can't Always Tell," the story of a son of a wealthy New Yorker and a supper club dancer. It features Lou Tellegan and Kathryn Perry.
