In New Parish

Dr. Gilbert Stansell, pastor of the Wilmette Parish Methodist Episcopal church since 1921, will take leave of the village to assume charge of the first Methodist church of Elgin, Ill. A reception was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Stansell at the Wilmette Woman's club Tuesday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Prince Perry and their four sons, of New York, have rented the Victor Elting home at 830 Mount Pleasant court, Winnetka, for a year.

Sunday Evening Club to Begin Book Discussions

The Winnetka Sunday Evening club held its second meeting, Sunday, October 10, in the Camp Fire room of the Community House.

Dr. J. W. F. Davies talked on books that the club might take up and read, and on summer reading that he has done. The club voted to take up Durant's book called the "Story of Philosophy," each chapter to be assigned to a person who will report on it and discuss it.

The first chapter has been given to Miss Louise May Greeley, who will take it up Sunday, October 17.

At the suggestion of the Rev. T. A. Goodwin, the club will gather for the meeting at 6 instead of 6:30, in order that any who wish to attend the evening service in the church may do so, at 8 o'clock.

HONORED AT BANQUET

Mrs. Edward Bemis, mother of Walter Bemis, 682 Ardsley road, was guest of honor at a banquet given at the Hotel Sherman Friday, October 8, on the fourth anniversary of her term as the only woman member of the Cook County Board of Commissioners. The speakers included Francis X. Busch, corporation counsel, who represented Mayor Dever, Patrick Carr, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Mrs. George Bass, Edward Litsinger, and Mrs. Thomas Mullancy. Mrs. E. R. Fifield acted as toastmistress. A number of Winnetka residents were there.

Mrs. Roy A. Whipple, 170 Woodland avenue, Mrs. Ferdinand Wolter, Jr. of 1377 Scott avenue, and Mrs. J. E. Replogle of 910 Oak street have returned from Springfield, Ill., where they attended the three day session of the Grand chapter of the Eastern Star.
