

The New Limousine Invalid Coach

COMFORT and refinement characterize the new Scott Limousine Invalid Coach (more commonly called ambulance)—one of the first of its type to be introduced on the North Shore. It is fitted superbly and with the care that would go into the making of the finest private car. An air mattress, large balloon tires and cradle springs provide ease for the patient. It is equipped with a doctor's emergency cabinet and an electric fan. Entrance is from the side. The attendants are uniformed.

One Ship that never comes in

THERE would not be much use in taking passage on a ship that never came to harbor, would there? Yet WASHDAY is a voyage that is never over. No matter how hard you work, every week brings more hours of tiring drudgery. And it is as monotonous as it is endless.

laundry? We have many services and you will be amazed at the reasonable prices. And once you discover how many new hours we give you . . . how much more time you have for the things that make life more worth while . . . you'll never again be a passenger on the ship that never comes in.
