

Published Recently

(Extracts from publishers' comments.)

"In Quest of the Perfect Book"
—William Dana Orcutt
The book holds an irresistible lure for both general reader and collector.

"Jarnegan"—Jim Tulley
The first honestly written novel of Hollywood.

"Jesus a Myth"—Georg Brandes
The world famous Danish author and critic has once more flung a challenge in the face of established ideas.

"My Idea of God"
—Joseph Fort Newton
A symposium of faith. (Leaders of thought have given their conception of God).

"London Nights"—Stephen Graham
The true poetry of a great city, for it combines adventure with a knowledge of hidden beauty.

"Culture of Ancient Greece and Rome"
—Frank Poland
New outline of history.

"England"—Dean Inge.
This book has created a sensation in two countries.

"Hildegard"—Katherine Norris.
Drama of a girl's courageous fight to overcome the most formidable obstacle any woman ever faces.

"A Man Could Stand Up"
—Ford Maddox Ford
Continuing the development of ideas and characters from the author's previous books.

"Harmer John"—Hugh Walpole
A companion story to the "Cathedral," wherein an apostle of true Christianity comes to Polchester.

"American Soundings"
—J. St. Loe Strachey.
Mr. Strachey has written a significant study of America today.

"My Mortal Enemy"—Willa Cather.
Picture of Nineteenth century New York and a subtle revelation of a marriage.

"With Eastern Eyes"—Ernest Poole
An American matrimonial tangle as seen through the eyes of a Russian.

"The Second book of Negro Spirituals"
—Johnson
It contains a new introduction by J. W. Johnson and sixty-one more songs arranged by J. R. Johnson.

"The Dead Ride Hard"
—Louis Joseph Vance
A galloping tale of love, intrigue and breathless adventure.

"Edison; The Man and His Work."
The story of Edison is the epic of America.

In celebration of the impending Army-Navy football game to be played this year for the first time in the Middle West, Wednesday, October 27, has been set aside at Great Lakes Naval Training Station as a wonderful gala day. The public is invited on that day to a spectacular all-day pageant—with parades, games, races, war-time maneuvers—a rare exhibition of naval splendor and naval strategy. Remember the day—Wednesday, October 27. Don't miss this great event. The North Shore Line, with frequent train service, will take you direct to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Milwaukee

to

NORTH Shore Line offers you a distinctive and unequalled transportation service to Milwaukee.

There is a fast train every hour.

Trains operate into the very heart of the city, saving you time and taxi fare. Located at Sixth & Sycamore, our Milwaukee terminal is convenient to everywhere.

Electrically-operated, North Shore Line trains afford the utmost in cleanliness and travel comfort. No smoke, no cinders. You reach your destination fully refreshed, in tip-top condition for a day of successful business or pleasure.

The next time you go to Milwaukee, take advantage of the superior service afforded on this high-speed, electrically-operated railroad.

Note: Seven Milwaukee-bound trains operate each day via the Shore Line Route, stopping here for passengers. At other hours, Shore Line Limited trains operating to Waukegan make direct connections at North Chicago Junction with Milwaukee Limiteds operating over the Skokie Valley Route.

For schedules, fares and other information, inquire at ticket office.

Chicago North Shore & Milwaukee Railroad Co.

The high-speed electrically-operated railroad

WINNETKA PASSENGER STATION
Telephone Winnetka 963 Baggage Checked

There's Still Time . . .

to have a fur coat made up to your order for this coming season's wear, but; you must act quickly.

Come in and see our wonderful display of pelts and modes.

Okean Furriers

Exclusive Shop

Special Dept. for Ladies' Tailoring
Established on North Shore Since 1911

567 Lincoln Avenue
Phone Winn. 2752
Winnetka