

Church Library Has New Books

Among the many new books which have been added to the Mary Williams Tyrell library of the Winnetka Congregational church are the following:

"This Believing World," Lewis Browne;

"Stranger Than Fiction," Lewis Browne;

"The Young Man from Jerusalem," William G. Ballentine;

"Understanding the Bible," William G. Ballentine.

The two books by Professor Ballentine seek to do for the troubled and thoughtful student of religion a much needed service in the restatement of Christian truth in the terms of present day thought. Those who have been seeking a more discriminating understanding of the Bible and its value for today will find enjoyment and illuminating truth in his book, "Understanding the Bible." The chapter in the book called "The Surprising Experiences of Bishop Colenso" alone is worth the time spent in reading his whole book.

"The Young Man from Jerusalem" is a fresh portrayal of the figure and teachings of Jesus. To quote the author, "Jesus lived by Four Principles:— I. Inclusive Love; II. Humble Service; III. Freedom; and IV. Common Sense.

These Four Principles are all there is of Christianity and the only hope of mankind is in their final universal prevalence over the earth.

Back of the Principles lay, in the mind of Jesus Three Fundamental Beliefs;—

I. God is like Men, only greater; II. Men are like God, only smaller; III. God and Men can find happiness only in Eternal Mutual Love."

The two new books by Lewis Browne, "This Believing World" and "Stranger Than Fiction" might both be entitled, "More Interesting Than Fiction." The former is a simple account of the origins and developments of religions in general and each of the principle current religions in part from a sympathetic viewpoint. The latter is the story of the Jewish people from earliest times to the present, their persecutions, their great contributions, their astonishing power to endure the vicissitudes of their tragic yet heroic history.

Relief in Six to Eight Hours

Dear Sir:

Have had the pleasure of using your cold tablets in breaking up a cold and attacks of the gripe. I say "a pleasure," for I mean just that. Colds have been one of the greatest bug-a-boos in my life, and I have found your tablets the most effective remedy that I have been able to secure.

Taken according to directions they will give relief in from six to eight hours of that raw feeling in the head, pains, and other conditions common to severe colds; stopping watering of the eyes and nose almost as quickly, and effects a permanent cure in from twenty-four to forty-eight hours.

Very truly yours,
JOHN A. SMITH,
Chicago, Illinois.
