Pneumonia Attack Fatal to William Abel Friday

Funeral services for William Abel were held from Graceland chapel Monday, October 25, at 2 o'clock; services being conducted by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church. Mr. Abel succumbed to an attack of bronchial pneumonia, after an illness of less than a week, on Friday, October 22, at the age of 43 years.

He was born September 29, 1883, and resided in Winnetka for about twenty years, preceding his moving to San Pedro, Cal., about three years ago, where he conducted a cleaning and dyeing establishment. Last spring Mr. Abel leased his business and returned to Winnetka and since that time had acted as manager of the Black and White Cab company, in conjunction with his brother, Ulysses Abel.

He is survived by his wife, and daughter Priscilla Jane; his mother, Mrs. Mary Abel, residing at 556 Center street; and three brothers, Fred, Charles and Ulysses.

Mrs. H. E. Goodrich of Winnetka is moving to the Orrington hotel the end of this week.

Country Day Grid Squad Takes Close Game From Parker

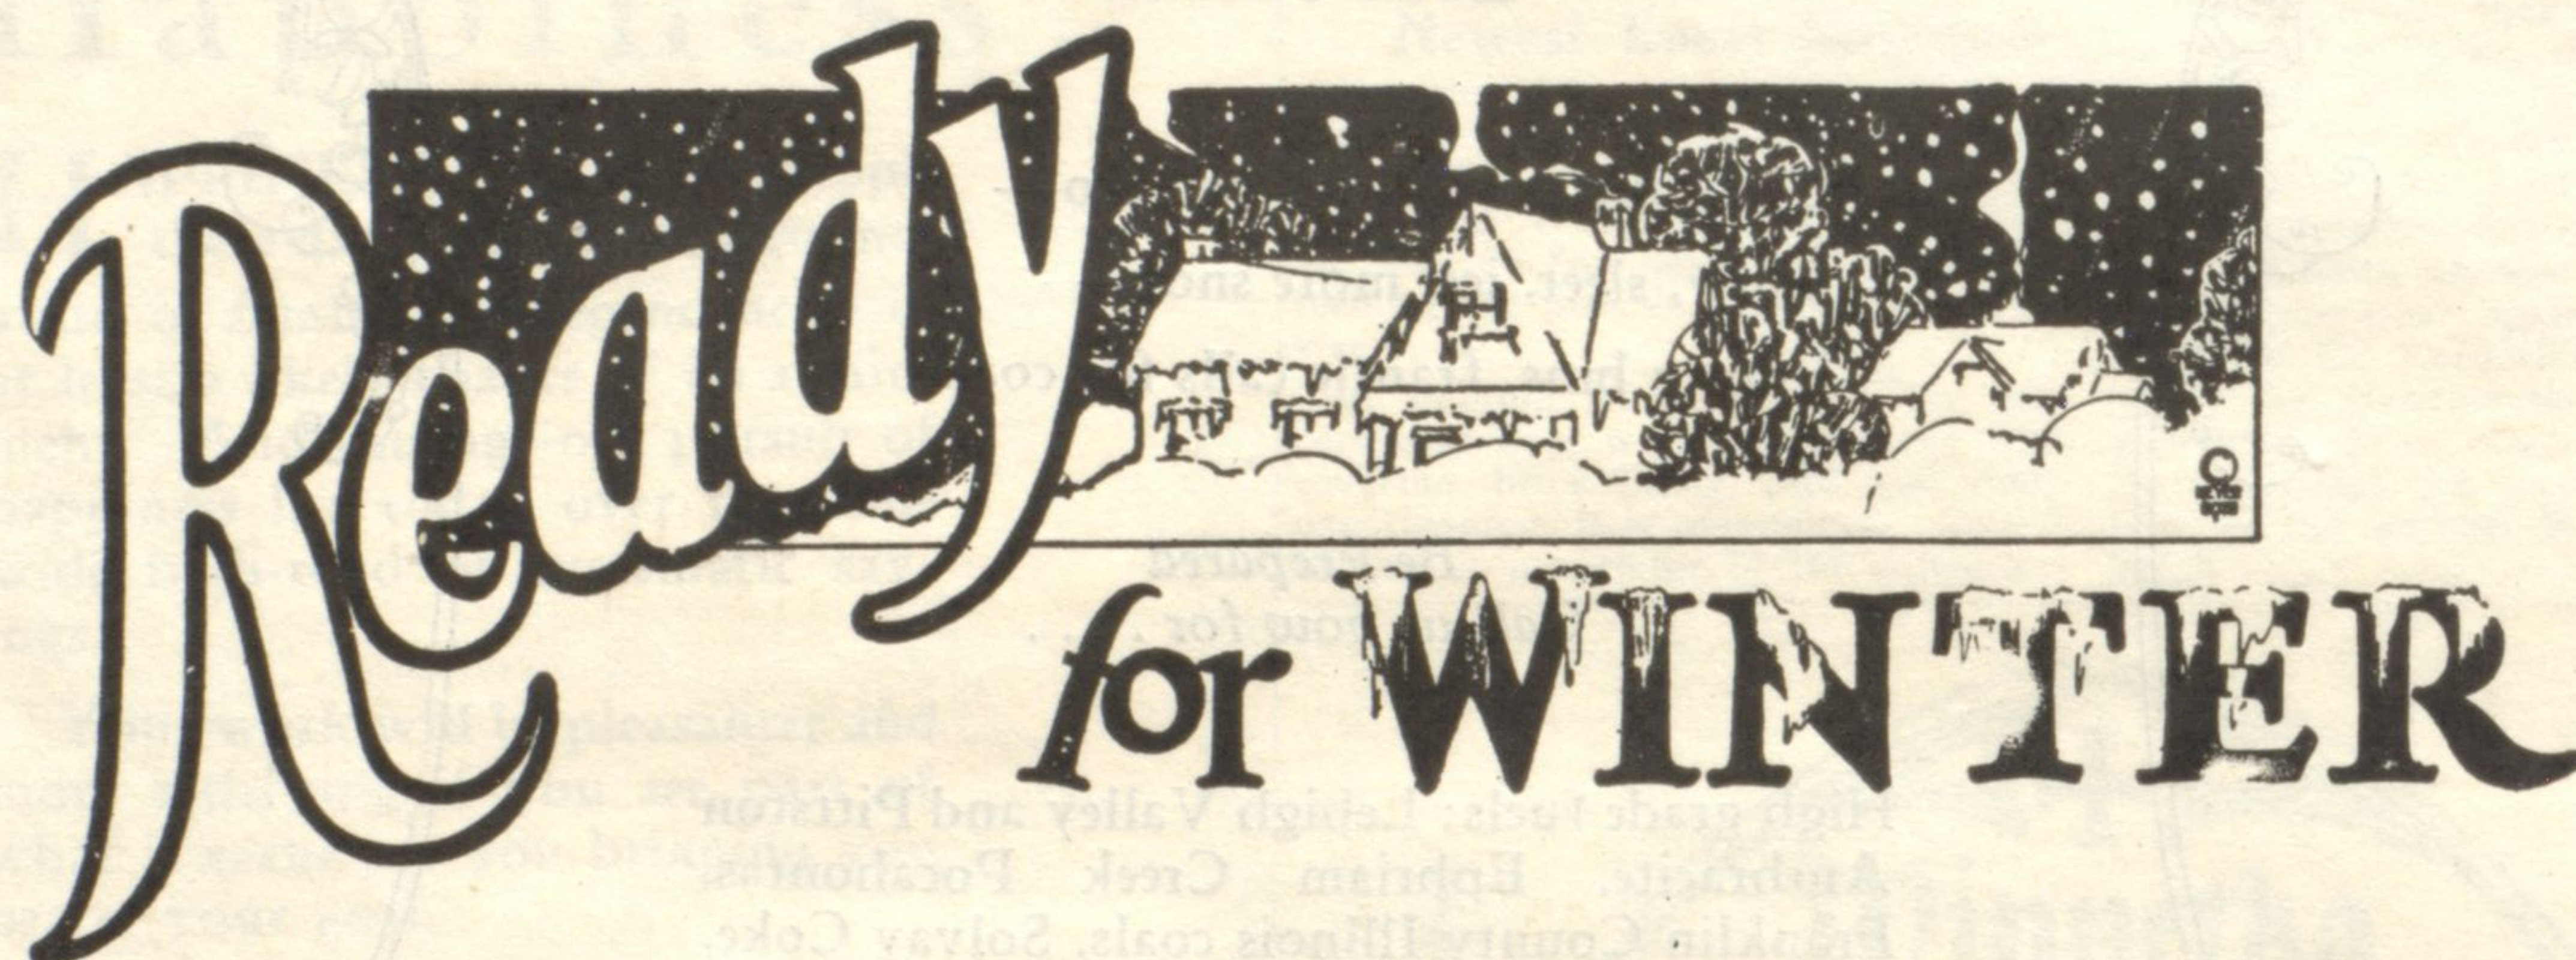

The North Shore Country Day school football team met its traditional rival and opponent, Francis Parker school, Friday of last week, and won 6 to 0.

The Parker game is always the big event of the North Shore football season, but this game proved heavy and unexciting until just before the end of the last quarter.

Both teams fought hard and held each other to a draw, until the last moment, when the North Shore men rallied for a spectacular play, intercepted a pass from Parker and backed their Captain for a touchdown just as the whistle blew.

On Monday of this week the North Shore Heavyweights defeated the Skokies, 3 to 0 while on the following day the North Shore Middleweights lost to the Skokie team, 25 to 0.

Mrs. Halsey B. G. White of 780 Willow road, her son, Hugh, and her niece, Miss Gibson, are leaving Winnetka the first of November to pass the winter season at the Orrington hotel.
