

Kill That Cold Today!

Sneezing, coughing, eye-watering, aggravating colds relieved quickly and easily by Dr. Nabors' Cold Tablets. Is your head stuffed up? Your throat irritated? Act now—the slightest cold may lead to serious trouble! Thousands are testifying how Dr. Nabors' Cold Tablets, the time tested and reliable remedy of a famous physician, break up the most stubborn colds when everything else seems to fail. "I have been taking your cold tablets whenever I have a cold for the past two years. I had been troubled with cold in my head which sometimes caused infected sinus. Dr. Nabors' tablets have never failed to clear up this condition within 24 hours," says Lawrence E. Erdman of Chicago. Easy to take.

ART LEAGUE ON WAY TO BIGGEST SEASON

Exhibit at Winnetka Community House Forerunner of Many Interesting Meetings

By MARGERY WINDES

Great variety of pictures, ranging from oils, pastels, drawings, and etchings, with subjects including landscapes, marines, portraits, garden walls, and temples in Italy, were included in the exhibition on display in Matz hall, in the Winnetka Community House, during the last week, by the North Shore Art league.

An unusually lovely marine, vivid in color, and displaying violent action of waves, hung on the south wall, almost faces a stately temple against a blue sky, on the opposite wall. A unique picture of a group of gaunt birch trees was hung near a delightfully intimate portrayal of a snug harbor with its fishing smacks resting quietly.

On the east wall, alone, hung the portrait of the late president of Wheaton college, done by a young man from Evanston, an accomplished portrait painter.

An imaginative picture of elves and kittens, that would delight the heart of a child, and warm the heart of a grown up hung on the west wall. There were many pictures, and many artists, and all cannot be described. Wind-blown clouds, quiet gardens, and unusually fine portraits were on display.

Eckhart, an interesting water-color of an ancient ship by Lionel Robertson, two marines by W. M. Gourley, two landscapes of the Skokie, by Hugo von Hofsten, internationally famous for his pictures, and two pastels, one of Barcelona and the other of The Ancient City of Rock, Aledo, Spain, by Charles Morgan.

Show Skokie Sketches

Glencoe was represented by three artists, Unitah K. Shippen, Mrs. Edward A. (Grace) Brion, and Irma Keehn. Mrs. Brion and Mrs. Keehn studied this summer in a class conducted by Frank Peyraud, which met and sketched out in the Half Day region. The two pictures on exhibition by Mrs. Brion, and the three by Mrs. Keehn, were all sketched either in the Skokie or farther west. Mrs. Shippen's picture is entitled "Summer Joys."
