

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson K. Dering returned Saturday, October 23, from their honeymoon abroad, and are making their home temporarily with Mrs. Dering's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Roehm of 835 Hill road.

Camp Fire Sparks

Wonssicket group of Camp Fire Girls, Amy MacIntyre, guardian, held a Mothers' Tea in the Camp Fire room of Community House Tuesday afternoon, November 19. The girls had a delightful exhibition of some of their Camp Fire bead-work, knot-boards, and hand-craft, and displayed their Camp Fire gowns and headbands, and had many interesting records to show their progress in Camp Fire.

Litahni Camp Fire group, Mrs. Fisher, guardian, had a unique and happy Hallowe'en masquerade party Friday evening, November 22, in the Philip Post room of Community House. All sorts of Halloween stunts were arranged by the girls and carried through with much fun, and the occasion closed with a delicious little supper, served at a table gay with Hallowe'en decorations and favors.

The Blue Bird group (younger Camp Fire Girls), under the leadership of Emily Nell Simpson, staged a very successful Hallowe'en party Friday afternoon in Community House. Songs, dances, recitations and stunts by the girls made a very delightful program, and the costumes added another touch of Hallowe'en color and fun.

Thursday, October 28, the different Winnetka Camp Fire groups went to Evanston, by bus, as the guests of the Public Service company plant, and had an interesting trip through the Gas Works, there.

Spooks and Witches Walk at Friendship Circle Party

Spook and witches held high carnival at Community House, Tuesday evening, as stellar attraction at the Hallowe'en party given by Friendship Circle. There were forty young women present to enjoy the special games and music provided for the occasion.

Miss Katherine Gonnerman was awarded first prize for the best costume and the second prize, which was for the most comical and appropriate Hallowe'en costume went to Miss Marie Schrank.

Friendship circle is growing in membership very rapidly. There are many others, no doubt, who would like to join. To those, Mrs. Morton D. Cahn requests that you phone her, Winnetka 1418.

Miss Betty Schwartz of 187 Ridge avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, entertained eighteen freshmen pledges of Alpha Phi sorority of Northwestern university, Sunday, October 24, at a tea in her home.

Mrs. E. L. Lange of 838 Locust street spent last week-end at Lake Delavan, Wis., where she visited her sister, and at Madison, Wis., where she spent a day or two with her sons, who are attending the University of Wisconsin.
