Jane Addams on Open Meeting Program of the Winnetka Club

On Tuesday, November 2, at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Jane Addams will speak before the Winnetka Woman's club. This meeting is not limited to members, but is open to all who care to attend. The program is in charge of the civics and philanthropy committee.

Miss Addams' subject will be "Dublin, last July; Geneva, in September." The title may seem a bit cryptic to those who are uninitiated, but to those who know, it means that Miss Addams will have many interesting things to say about the World Congress of the Woman's International League for Peace and Freedom, which met in Dublin in July, and whose international president Miss Addams is.

In her official capacity Miss Addams presided over these meetings at which were representatives of twenty-four countries. Miss Addams visited Geneva in September, so brings the latest word from the League of Nations.

The meeting at which Miss Addams is to speak is being arranged by the Winnetka Woman's club, in co-operation with the Woman's International League for Peace and Freedom.
