THE HOYBURN

One of the season's features to which fans who like Bebe Daniels' cunning and stunning ways have been looking forward to for some weeks past, "The Campus Flirt," comes to the Hoyburn theater with the current bill. The story concerns itself with a college girl who "highhats" the world when it fails to come up to her own standard, and her treatment in the hands of fellow students provides a series of good laughs.

When the Hoyburn bill changes Monday and Tuesday, W. C. Fields will be shown in his latest comedy feature, "So's Your Old Man." It will be on the screen for two days only.

Gene Tunney in "The Fighting Marine" is a special addition to the current bill. When the bill changes Wednesday the feature will be "Love's Blindness" starring Pauline Starke.

VILLAGE THEATRE

"Variety," product of Paramount's European studio and tingling with intense drama and master acting, will be featured at the Village theater Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 1, 2 and 3. A Kelly Color picture, a Pathe News reel, and an Educational comedy will be the added attractions.

"Passionate Quest," from the novel by E. Phillips Oppenheim, presents the lights of London, a promise of adventure, fame, and romance; youth's passionate quest the world over, youth's dream of fame and fortune. Showing Thursday, November 4, with a Cameo comedy and a Pathe Review film.

A thrilling, captivating, and clean cut comedy is presented in "Young April," for Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6. He pawned his Royal crown to have a last fling at Paris—meets the girl, then... There's a two reel Buster Brown comedy, "Buster Helps Dad" and a Pathe News; Red Grange's "One Minute to Play" will be featured in the near future.

THE NEW EVANSTON

"Mare Nostrum" (Our Sea), the screen version of the story by Ibanez, filmed on the original locations in Spain, France and Italy, so vividly described in the story, and featuring Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno, comes to the New Evanston beginning Monday.

Ken Maynard in "The Unknown Cavalier," his latest production, is on the screen now at the New Evanston. The star, who is accredited by admirers with producing the best of all western pictures, is reputed to have made his greatest picture thus far in "The Unknown Cavalier." This with a comedy, scenic and first run news reel go to make up an interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sethness of 1015 Dinsmore road entertained sixteen friends at dinner and bridge, Friday, October 22, at their home.
