

Drive Carefully—Children Are Near

Making North Evanston safe for children is one of the objects of the North Evanston Auto Safety association which posted warning signs for motorists last week at many intersections throughout the Sixth ward. Standing beside one of these signs in the accompanying picture is Benjamin Gage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Gage, 2418 Hartzell street, who is captain of the junior police of Crandon school. He is wearing the Sam Brown belt which designates junior police throughout the city. The duty of the junior police is to help direct automobile traffic in the vicinity of school buildings

Old Kenilworth Tower Falls Before Wreckers

One of the north shore's best known landmarks, the old Kenilworth water tower, is being wrecked by the Chicago Bridge and Iron works, to whom the contract was let by the Village. Built in 1890 by the Morgan Construction company of Chicago, it has served its purpose and is giving way to the new tower recently completed nearer the center of town. It is located on Kenilworth avenue near Sheridan road.

ADDRESS LARGE GROUP

Miss Clara Belle Baker, director of the Children's school of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, spoke Friday, October 22, before a group of 2000 superintendents and teachers of the Eastern New York State Teacher's association at Albany, N. Y. Her topic was "Primary Reading" and the audience was sufficiently interested to remain for a lengthy discussion of the various problems which are encountered in teaching the subject in the primary grades.
