Purple Ready for Return Engagement With Hoosier Squad

Northwestern's Wildcat grid team accompanied by the Purple's new eighty-piece band and 500 members of the student body will move into Hoosierland Saturday for the return engagement with Pat Page's Crimson warriors. The contest will be "Homecoming" for the Hoosiers and the Memorial stadium at Bloomington will be packed for the contest.

Coach Thistlethwaite's greatest fear right now is that his boys will enter the forthcoming game with a lot of undue confidence, a situation which has foiled many of the best laid plans of grid mentors in the past. The Purple's defeat of the Crimson two weeks ago has caused the wildcats to look upon the game with a certain feeling of laxity. However, Coach Thistlethwaite early informed his men that such an attitude would prove their undoing.

Indiana has always proved one of the Purple's toughest opponents in the popular fall pastime and for that reason the Northwestern coaching staff is determined that the players get down to some honest to goodness preparation for the coming combat.

The Purple emerged from the Notre Dame game with only a few casualties. Ruddy Schuler, star tackle, hurt a knee and ankle that may keep him on the sidelines Saturday.

HERE'S A MYSTERY

Charley Young, Landryman De Luxe, Pays Rent in Advance, Then Disappears to Parts Unknown

What has become of Charley Young, the Chinaman from Englewood, who had made all arrangements for opening a laundry at 521 Fourth street, Wilmette, even to paying two months rent in advance for the place and equipping it for business, and then mysteriously disappearing?

That is a question Paul Schroeder would like to have answered. The building belongs to Mr. Schroeder. Young rented the place about three months ago, at which time he paid two months' rent in advance. Mr. Schroeder says. Young explained at that time that it would take him about a month to get the place fixed up for business and with these plans he proceeded. He has a key to the room and many of his personal belongings are there, in addition to the laundry equipment.

Mr. Schroeder has made inquiry at Young's former place of residence in Englewood, but his friends there say they do not know anything about him. He left some time ago, leaving no word as to where he was going, they say.

Real Football Game Is Feature of Grange Film

A real football game with Red Grange in all of his glory is to be featured at the Campus Theater next week in "One Minute to Play." One eleven composed of All-coast stars and captained by George Wilson, former University of Washington star opposes Grange and a crack team of Southern California players. The story of the play revolves around a boy who goes to college with the purpose of making a football record for himself and his Alma Mater which to date has never won a game.

Northwestern university's entire football squad has been invited to attend the show next Monday, the Evanston High squad on Tuesday and New Trier football team on Wednesday.
