

The New Limousine Invalid Coach

COMFORT and refinement characterize the new Scott Limousine Invalid Coach (more commonly called ambulance) —one of the first of its type to be introduced on the North Shore. It is fitted superbly and with the care that would go into the making of the finest private car. An air mattress, large balloon tires and cradle springs provide ease for the patient. It is equipped with a doctor's emergency cabinet and an electric fan. Entrance is from the side. The attendants are uniformed.

"Short Skirts?"

Nothing to Get Hysterical About"

said aunt Julia, if parents would only take a little time to study the viewpoint of the younger generation they'd get on a lot better with their children.

The trouble is, so many mothers are so busy taking care of their houses that they don't have much time for the folks who live with them.

We agree with Aunt Julia—and, what's more, we offer every woman a short cut through the longest and hardest of all household duties—the weekly wash. Many services to choose from, all reasonably priced, and new energy and new leisure to find out what's going on inside the heads of the junior members of the family.
