

Florentine Model

From these six choose the piano that completes your home

YOUR piano is not only heard, but seen. And since it is a dominant element in the decorative scheme, you should have an instrument that is as correct in design as it is beautiful in tone!

We are displaying the Estey Baby Grand in six period models—Flemish, Louis XVI, Queen Anne, Chippendale, Heppelwhite, Florentine. From these six beautiful pianos it is easy to choose the one to harmonize with the decoration of your living room.

And remember that the Estey is first of all a fine piano of superb tone. At $985 the Estey period Baby Grand is one of the greatest values which Estey, in all its fifty-five years as builders of fine pianos, has ever offered. This price includes a correct period bench to match.

A visit to our piano salons where you can see and play these instruments will establish the truth of this statement.

*Your own piano will be accepted as part payment.
Convenient term payments may be arranged.*

Crescendon Among Numerous Features of the Crosley 5-50

"The Crosley Crescendon, part of the standard equipment of the five-tube 5-50, is a patented device which permits the building up of weak signals to full room volume, without distortion," says C. H. Affeldt, of the Radio Service shop, 18 Prouty Annex, Winnetka, who handles this line.

"Hundreds of thousands of radio listeners have found weak stations on their dials," he says, "and worked to build up the strength so the signals would be at least audible, without success. They have wished there was some device on the set which would permit the increasing of the volume of these stations—but have wished in vain until the Crescendon was developed. This Crescendon is just what they wanted. It builds up signals of stations, inaudible on other sets, to full room volume."

Girls Take Up Archery in Gymnasium Classes

The time honored sport of archery has just lately been instituted in the girls' gym classes at New Trier. It will be taught by Miss Boulton, and by Miss Fogg, of the gymnasium staff.
The school is particularly fortunate in being able to offer this sport which is good exercise and still not too strenuous. Because it is so expensive, only a few prep schools have been able to offer it.

All the girls in the school will be eligible to learn to shoot with the bow and arrow if they so desire.

The Current Events club of Winnetka will meet Friday, November 12 at the home of Mrs. Anna L. Bacon of 903 Ash street at 2:30 o'clock.

ART EXHIBIT NOV. 23

Etchings and Small Paintings, Suitable for Christmas Giving, to Be Displayed by University Guild

Opening Nov. 23, it was announced at Monday's meeting of the Evanston University guild, there will be a showing of etchings and small paintings—things that will be on sale for Christmas giving, at the Orrington hotel ball room.

The display will be one of the series of art exhibits that the guild is offering the Evanston and north shore public this season in effort to create an atmosphere looking towards the eventual building of an art museum in Evanston.
The entries will be works of Evanston, north shore and Chicago artists.

Upper School of Church Holds Its Annual Dinner

The annual dinner for the Upper school of the Winnetka Congregational church will be held at Matz hall, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. Not only a good dinner is assured for those who attend but there will also be a good program. Each class will put on a stunt. The dinner for the Lower school will be November 20.
