

Lord's

FOUNTAIN SQUARE

Book Suggestions

MY MORTAL ENEMY
Willa Cather
Alfred A. Knopf .....$2.50

THE DARK DAWN
Martha Ostenso
Dodd, Mead & Co. ....$2.00

TRAIL-MAKERS OF THE MIDDLE BORDER
Hamlin Garland
Macmillan .....$2.50

CAUSES AND CHAMPIONS
M. A. De Wolfe Howe
Little, Brown & Co. ....$4.00

A MAN COULD STAND UP—
Ford Madox Ford
A. & C. Boni .....$2.50

EAST OF THE SUN AND WEST OF THE MOON
Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt
Charles Scribner's Sons ....$3.50

THE CHARIOT OF FIRE
Bernard De Voto
Macmillan .....$2.50

SUTTER'S GOLD
Blaise Cendrars
Translated from the French by Henry Longan Stuart
Harper & Brothers .....$2.50

THE NATURE OF THE WORLD AND OF MAN
By Sixteen Members of the Faculty of the University of Chicago
University of Chicago Press $4.00

EIGHT YEARS WITH WILSON'S CABINET 1913 to 1920
David F. Houston
Doubleday Page & Co. ..$10.00

NUMBER FOUR JOY STREET
A Medley of Prose and Verse for Girls and Boys.
D. Appleton & Co. ....$2.50

JOHN MARTIN'S BIG BOOK
Number 10
Dodd, Mead & Co. ....$2.50

STATIONERY
NEW FRENCH FOLD CARDS
$1.15 and $1.25
Heavy quality, deckle edged note cards whose colors are just a shade different:

- Anchor Shantung
- Sea Spray Sistine Blue
- Driftwood Abalone Grey
- Oriental White

Are Your Christmas Cards Engraved Yet?
Let us make them for you. Hundreds of designs!
LORD'S STATIONERY SHOP
Just inside the Davis Street Door

NEWEST BOOKS AND BOOK REVIEWS

DID YOU KNOW—

That authors of various countries are having a three-day international conference at Warsaw at which author's rights will be discussed?

That Hilaire Belloc's new novel, "The Emerald of Catharine the Great," which is a mystery story, will be published soon?

That Dr. William Dorsey, author of "Why We Behave Like Human Beings," has returned from Europe after a stay in England?

That the title of Anne Parish's new novel is "Tomorrow Morning" and will be published next spring?

Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth gave a reading of her poems Tuesday afternoon before the Junior Friends of Art in the Crystal ballroom of the Blackstone hotel. Harold Vinal of New York is at present publishing "Wings of Song," a collection of poems written by Mrs. Rathbone.

Winter at Cloverfield Farm
By Helen Fuller Orton
The kind of thing you used to love on the farm, made to live again for your children.
Stokes $1.00

Shops of Distinction

Discriminating children insist upon having their books bought at A WALDEN SHOP! May we send you our recommended Juvenile List?

THE WALDEN BOOK SHOPS
307 Plymouth Court
410 No. Michigan Ave.
CHICAGO

Oppenheim at His Best

THE GOLDEN BEAST

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

"It is one of the very best of his long stories."—The Boston Transcript.

$2.00 at all Booksellers

LITTLE, BROWN & CO
Publishers, Boston

Just Paragraphs

It is said that Louis Bromfield is looking for an inexpensive farm in France. Which looks as if this shining light on America's literary horizon intends to desert her shores permanently. It seems as if this would be a sad thing not only for America but for Mr. Bromfield whose writings he intends to make a complete picture of American life.

Milt Gross, perpetrator of the incomparable "Nize Baby," is launching another little book for the public's delight. It is "Hiawatta, Wit No Odder Pomes," published last week.

Fast work is sometimes necessary, but fortunately this time it is possible. Greenberg, Inc., is bringing forth a double quick Royal Edition of Queen Marie's romantic novel, "Ilderim." For those who want to be really up-to-date, don't forget her other book, the "The Queen of Roumania's Fairy Book" for children.

"The Gallant Lady" by Margaret Widdemer, which was published recently, is already being played in the movies.

Edith Abbott, Dean at the University of Chicago, has compiled a volume of public documents and other material bearing on the subject of immigration prior to 1882. The book is entitled "Historical Aspects of the Immigration Problem."

FALLODON PAPERS

Viscount Grey

Delightful essays on reading and outdoor life. "Here is the real man! Literally, he speaks from the pages of the book." — Cincinnati Tribune. $2.50

Houghton Mifflin Co.

A new novel by the author of "The World's Illusion."

WEDLOCK

By Jacob Wassermann

Ludwig Lewisohn says: "It is a book on Marriage of monumental power and shattering insight."

Boni & Liveright $2.50

Where There Are Children Dare There Be Divorce?

Custody Children

By Everett Young

Not the ordinary "brilliant society novel." It catches your emotions and you find yourself caring supremely what happens to Clodi Dillon.

Henry Holt & Co. $2.50

Reviews of New Books

"The World of William Clissold"
—H. G. Wells.

It is nothing new to say that Wells has done a bold thing. It is something newer to say that he has done it supremely well. In his two volume novel, "The World of William Clissold," he has returned to that brilliant, penetrating, constructive method of which at times he is undeniably a master.

This "World of William Clissold" is a novel in three distinct parts. The first more or less incidental background of Clissolds, the essentials of the history of mankind, an analysis of socialism with particular attention to Karl Marx and Bolshevism, a most penetrating history of the development of advertising, and insight into the power it does and could exercise in the world, an analysis of the War and England after the War and numberless other things.

Then in Volume Two, comes the story of William Clissold himself. A novel within, not a novel but let us say a library, a sympathetic, beautifully written love story which makes us—so insatiable are we in this life for romance—turn with regret on to the third part, a return to the social and economic analysis and reconstruction which is the larger part of the book.

It is useless to try and summarize in a line or two the really vast comprehensive program Mr. Wells has formulated for a World Republic. We can only say that his mind goes broad and deep, that he writes with insight and sincerity and emotion, and that for anyone who likes to follow an amazingly brilliant mind there is enjoyment waiting for him in "William Clissold."

"Introduction to Sally"—Elizabeth.

It is difficult to say what "Elizabeth" was aiming at in "Introduction to Sally." If she has been a little less ironical we should have said she was laughing only at her characters and not at us, but as it is we are left doubting just how her humor is divided between us.

—ESTHER GOULD

The Book Nook

is here to help you observe National Book Week

Circulating Library of Best and Newest Fiction and Non-Fiction

809 Oak St., Winn. 635