

Wilmac Studio Makes Bow
As Home Decorating Shop

The Wilmac studio made its formal bow at the North Shore public yesterday at its new home in Evanston, 1318 Chicago avenue. Mrs. Claire M. Wilmot and Mrs. Nell E. MacHenry are the proprietors of this charming new shop which is offering objects for the home.

Mrs. Wilmot has been well known as an interior decorator in Evanston for the past three years. Mrs. MacHenry is joining her in enlarging her former business. The shop will specialize in such things as chintzes, lamps, pillows, and tables.

The shop itself is attractively decorated in green with orchid drapes, as a setting for the fresh groups of objects which are arriving each day.

The Ladies' Aid society of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church will have an all-day bazaar, Friday, December 3. Dinner will be served in the evening. There will be booths for fancy articles, linens, utilities, fancy and practical aprons, dolls, toys, and children's utilities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nash Ott of 17 Indian Hill road will give a dance Tuesday evening, December 28, at their home in honor of their son John Nash Ott, Jr.

The next meeting of the Kenilworth League of Women Voters will be held early in December. Due to the increased membership this meeting will probably be held at the Kenilworth club instead of in a private home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Gates, formerly of Wilmette and now of Evanston, have as their guests for a fortnight, their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Moulton of Fort Smith, Ark.

"Listening to Music," School Lecture Topic

Sigmund Spaeth, an accomplished musician, also lecturer and authority on musical education, spoke to the children of the North Shore Country Day school at a recent morning assembly period. His subject was, "Listening to Music." He showed his audience how to recognize the patterns of which music is made up.

The next meeting of the Skokie Valley chapter of the D. A. R. will be held at the home of Mrs. Percy B. Eckart, 206 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, November 24. At this meeting which is the first birthday of the chapter, Mrs. George Kingsley will give a short paper on Continental hall from notes she took last summer in Washington. At this meeting there will also be an election of alternate officers.
