Merchants Hear Some New Things About Illinois

Winnetka Chamber of Commerce at its regular monthly dinner and meeting Monday evening, enjoyed, first hand, some of the inspiring stories by Lester B. Colby, staff correspondent of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, who has been writing the very interesting articles "Rediscovering Illinois." These stories have been appearing for some time in the press throughout the state, and as was plainly evidenced by the brief verbal sketches which Mr. Colby gave Monday evening, have been arousing renewed interest and inspiration among her citizens in general.

Harry Baxter, district secretary of the Field department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, was also present and made a splendid address on the work of the national Chamber.

Action on the matter of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce affiliating with the State and the National associations, was deferred until a future meeting.

The Monday evening session was preceded by a chicken dinner, served at Matz hall, Community House.

William T. Wersted, vice-president of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce, presided at the business session.

Prof. John Borino added greatly to the pleasure of the evening by playing a number of piano selections.
