

Society Girls Will Act as Models at Fashion Revue

Style Show Will Be Midnight Feature of Large Military Ball

By JEAN TEN BROECK

The Military ball for which the Chicago committee of the Arden Shore association has issued invitations, will be more than just a ball with dancing its only proffered pleasure. Sensing the increasing trend of all ages of society to seek varied diversion, the committee is arranging midnight entertainment, one feature of which will be a fashion revue.

Charles A. Stevens and Brothers is furnishing the gowns for the sixteen girls and young matrons of Chicago and north shore society who have been chosen for their attractiveness, their charm of carriage, and their ability to wear clothes stylishly, as models for the occasion.

Miss Beatrice Burnett is in charge of the revue, and those who will display the styles of the hour will be Miss Ruth Elting, Miss Pauline Wolf, Miss Dorothy Rend, Miss Kathryn Thayer, Miss Charlotte Drum, Miss Beatrice Burnett, Miss Catherine Crerar, Miss Dorothy Reay, Miss Jean Logan, Miss Helen Farnum, Miss Mildred Allen, Miss Jane Schuettler, Miss LaVerne Louer, Mrs. Lowell Seeburg, Mrs. Charles R. Lindsay, III, and Mrs. Calvin Smith (Jeanette Reynolds).

Miss Carolyn Case of Hubbard Woods, who is to be introduced to society December 11, has been very busy with her work of placing on the north shore the utterly charming posters which have been contributed to the committee.

The officers of the Chicago committee that will give the ball in the Grand ballroom of the Hotel Sherman Friday evening, November 26, are Mrs. Lloyd Smith Shaw, chairman; Mrs. Albert S. Gardner (Carol deWindt of Winnetka), vice chairman; Mrs. Alvin Joy Schiffman, recording secretary; Miss Dorothy Peacock, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edgar Burch, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Albert Bruce Wegener, chairman of publicity.

North Shore Residents Will Greet Queen Marie

Chicago is agog with the coming of Queen Marie and her train of Roumanian guests, her son and daughter, and her suite of attendants. The north shore has not been neglected when it comes to those appointed on the official committee announced by the executive committee to welcome the Queen.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden of 725 Pine street, have received this honor.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Affleck of 695 Lincoln avenue, who attended the banquet in New York City, given by the Iron and Steel institute for the Queen, over which Judge Gary presided, have also been invited to attend the reception to be given Saturday night, November 13, at the Drake hotel.

House Warming in Attic

Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Thorne of 95 Indian Hill road, Winnetka celebrated moving into their new home with a house-warming a week ago, when they entertained about sixty of their friends. The guest of honor was Miss Virginia Mosman, who is visiting Mrs. Thorne's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Andrews of 98 Indian Hill road.

In keeping with the day, the party was a Hallowe'en affair and was given in the attic, which was decorated with autumn leaves and cornstalks.

North Shore Women Work for Junior School Party

The North End branch, Friends of the Chicago Junior school, will give a benefit card party Thursday, November 18, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, in the Salle Royale of the Sovereign hotel.

A prize will be given for each of the tables of bridge, five-hundred and buncoco. There will be entertainment given and refreshments will be served. Tickets for the affair can be obtained from members.

Mrs. Emma F. Stross of the Sovereign hotel, is general chairman of the party, assisted by Mrs. James E. Purnell, also of the Sovereign. Mrs. A. E. Buesch, Mrs. Lester G. Singer of Evanston, Mrs. M.
