At Luncheon to Plan
Benefit for Shut-Ins

Mrs. James Waller Marshall, 674 Prospect avenue, attended the meeting held at the home of Mrs. William Wrigley, Jr., 1200 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, for the purpose of planning for a benefit to be given the early part of December by the Vocational Society of Shut-ins.

Mrs. Marshall is president of the society. Among the thirty or more who were present, were Mrs. Marquette Healy, Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs.

James Condon, Mrs. J. R. Offield, Mrs. Clare More, general chairman of the benefit, Mrs. Albert Gardner, Mrs. Samuel Weis and Mrs. Charles H. Dennis.

Details concerning the benefit will be announced later in the month.

Mrs. Follette of New Orleans, mother of Mrs. Charles Patterson of 370 Walnut street, who has been visiting her for several months, left Friday for her home in the south. Many luncheons were given in Mrs. Follette's honor during her stay in Winnetka.

Junior League of Evanston Gives a
Ball Next Monday

The annual charity ball given by the Junior league will be held at the Evanston Country club, Monday, November 15. Carrying out the striking color scheme of a black and white costume ball, the affair is in charge of the general chairman of arrangements, Miss Marian Dawes of 187 Hazel avenue, Glencoe. Assisting Miss Dawes are Miss Isabella Muzzy of Evanston, who is heading the committee on tickets; Mrs. Louis Tilden of Evanston, who is taking charge of cigarettes; Mrs. John Eliot Warner of Evanston, who is arranging for the entertainment; Mrs. Wallace Thompson of Evanston, who is supervising the supper arrangements; and Miss Mary Louise Wuichet of Evanston, who is in charge of the decorations.

The entertainment committee announces that Miss Mary Suchiere of New York City, winner of Mayor Walker's prize for the best execution of the Black Bottom will give an exhibition of the dance. Miss Suchiere will be assisted by a well-trained chorus of Junior leaguers, that will include Mrs. Kenneth Little, Mrs. William M. Parkes, Mrs. W. W. Kingsbury, Mrs. Donald Lowry, Miss Quinn Jackson, all from Evanston, Mrs. Kenneth Burns of Winnetka, and Miss Henriette Bush of Glencoe.

The list of patronesses for the ball is composed of Mrs. W. R. Dawes of Glencoe, Mrs. Rufus Dawes, Mrs. William S. Mason, Mrs. George B. Dryden, Mrs. George F. Slaughter, Mrs. Edward F. Carpenter, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. William M. Parkes and Mrs. Charles G. Little, all of Evanston.

Mrs. Frederick P. Ives is president of the Evanston league, Mrs. Hariette Thorpe is first vice-president, and Miss Mary Louise Wuichet is second vice-president. Miss Marian Dawes of Glencoe is acting as secretary for the league, and Miss Jean Dawes is treasurer.

The proceeds from the ball will go toward the work of the Psychology clinic of Evanston.
