

NAMED GAME WARDEN

Ralph Harrington, of Schiller street, Wilmette, has been appointed a deputy game warden by William Stratton, director of Illinois State conservation of game.

HEAR CONCERTS

First of the music appreciation concerts to be held at the Horace Mann school, under the auspices of Professor Surrette, musical advisor for the public schools, was given at the Tuesday assembly. These concerts have been made possible by Mr. Surrette's personal financing and 489 students heard the first of the series which was devoted to the study of negro spirituals. Mrs. John Hansel was the soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kingery.

Boosting Their Cause

This smiling group of youngsters is typical of scores of north shore boys who are to be the direct beneficiaries of a campaign which is to establish a Boy Scout council for the north shore communities and provide a full time Scout executive. Wilmette, under the supervision of A. J. Coburn, chairman of the finance committee, is pledged to raise $2,000 of the total of $7,200 necessary to bring the North Shore Scout council to realization. Kenilworth and Glencoe will also contribute.
