1,000 University Alumni
Hold Conference Here

At least 1,000 alumni of American universities are expected to be in attendance at the 26th annual conference of the Association of American Universities which opened today at Northwestern and continues through Saturday. It is planned that the president of each of the 26 universities represented will receive and converse with at least fifty representatives of his school at a special gathering tomorrow evening at the North Shore hotel. Meetings of the conference were to be held on the Evanston campus today and on McKinlock campus tomorrow, with an evening meeting at the North Shore hotel tonight.
