Educator in Persia Is Visitor at Rudolph Home

Dr. Susan I. Moody of Teheran, Persia, who is the guest of Mrs. Franklin Rudolph of 745 Sheridan road, Winnetka, is planning to return to Persia some time within the next year. Many Winnetka people have met Dr. Moody, and heard her speak of her work as a doctor, and as an educator among girls in Persia. She has become famous throughout Teheran, a city of 450,000, not only because of her medical skill but because of her magnetic personality which has drawn all races, religions and stations of people to her.

Abdul Baha, the leader of the Bahai movement, who died in 1921, asked Dr. Moody to go to Persia in 1909. He asked that she make the trip, taking with her enough money to come home if she wished, but when she saw the great need for medical care among the women especially, she felt it would be cowardly to return. So she stayed, and has been there fifteen years.

PLAY BRINGS PRAISE

"Goose Hangs High," by Dramatic Club, Finds Favor With Large Audience at Community House

By CRITIC

"The Goose Hangs High," the initial performance of the Community Drama club's season, was an unqualified success and augurs a good season.

New scenery and re-painting of the old set made a welcome change. The charming interior disclosed as the curtain rose received the spontaneous applause of the audience for the efforts of Mrs. Louis Sherman, stage director, Mrs. Winterbotham, in charge of stage properties and Mr. Milton and Mr. Stuart, in charge of the lighting.

The cast was well chosen by the director, Mrs. Sherman Goble, and included both the names of those who have taken part in other plays and some new to the Drama club.

Mr. Van Horne, Mrs. Karnopp, Mrs. James Deming, Giles Weise, and Mr. Cary-Cury showed again their genuine histrionic talent. Very fortunate indeed is the director who has such native and tried ability. To praise one and not all would be invidious.

Added to these always welcome actors, were such newer ones as Mrs. Ray Flagans, Mrs. Thomas Ratcliffe, Mrs. Isaac Rothschild, Miss Florence Canning, James Deming, George Bartlett, Donald Morrison, and Donald Cameron, all most welcome additions to the list of the Community players.

An attractive feature of the evening was the new and clever folder containing "A Bit of History—An Ideal—and an Invitation," largely from the pen of A. Montague Ferry in collaboration with the chairmen of the program and player's committees.

If you haven't seen this, come and get one at the next regular performance, which will be the play given to the entire community as a Christmas gift and presented on December 15 and 16 in Matz hall, Community house.
