Cakes, cookies, pies, puddings, bread and muffins will be on sale.

Invite Art Lovers to Exhibition in Evanston

Art lovers are going to have an opportunity to meet the artists whom they admire at the reception Tuesday evening, which opens the next art exhibition in the Orrington hotel ballroom, Evanston. Seventy artists from Chicago and vicinity have been invited to exhibit, so the art loving public which has attended each showing of art and awaited the next is assured of a worthwhile exhibition.

This reception is to be given in honor of the exhibiting artists, and is the first at which the art public has been asked to meet artists. The University guild and the Evanston Art commission, who have been sponsoring the exhibitions, have extended a cordial invitation to attend to all persons interested.

The exhibition will be open every afternoon and evening in which the ballroom is not in use until Saturday, December 18. This will be the third of the series, the other two being a loan exhibition from the Friends of American Art collection in the Art institute, and the paintings lent by Evanston residents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall of 112 Green Bay road, entertained the cast and the producing staff of "The Goose Hangs High," given by the Community Drama club, at their home, Saturday evening, November 13.

Old Grid Rivals to Clash in Evanston-
N. T. Turkey Game

Rivalry of long standing will again flare to a white heat when the fast New Trier eleven meets the Evanston high school team in their annual grid tilt, on Thursday of next week. Especial interest is occasioned by the fact that it occurs on Thanksgiving and is New Trier's homecoming game of the season. Old grads will have returned to add their voices to the clamor and hope to aid in making "turkey-day" a real Thanksgiving.

The invaders have been making gigantic strides toward a season's championship and recently defeated the Oak Park eleven by the decisive score of 45 to 6. Their schedule has been a most difficult one and has included very strong teams. They have not been defeated and have only been tied once, which was with Senn on a score of 7 to 7. They recently were victors over Proviso, the team that defeated New Trier by one point, with a margin of one touchdown, the score being 13 to 6. Holland is reported to be the main-stay in their back field and made a 45 yard run for a touchdown against Oak Park. His team mates are all stellar football men, however, and will aid in making the game the hardest on the New Trier schedule.

According to all reports, the New Trier team is at the peak of good form and has an excellent chance of avenging last year's 41 to 0 defeat. They have been playing some of the finest football ever witnessed on the local field and if they play as well on Thursday, Evanston may well expect defeat.

Mrs. E. A. Higgins of Astoria, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Howard Bent of 112 Woodland avenue.
