

LEE Says:

THEY tell a lot of STORIES about Drug STORES and things that HAPPEN in Drug Stores SOME of them are true AND some are not but here IS one that actually HAPPENED here in our OWN store. Yesterday MORNING a man rushed IN just before train TIME and wanted us to SEND a coal shovel down TO his house. We told him THAT we did not carry THEM and he went out AND said that we ran A poor drug store. WHICH prompts us to say THAT one never knows WHAT might be asked for IN a Drug Store. WHAT we started out to SAY was—that we have ADDED a new gift DEPARTMENT carrying a LINE of gifts suitable FOR most occasions. DROP in soon and look it OVER.

Third Organ Concert to Be in Christmas Spirit

The third North Shore Community Organ concert at St. Luke's church Evanston, on December 21, is to be both a festival concert and a "request program." Falling as it does on the Tuesday before Christmas, it will be a gala occasion with St. Luke's vested choir of fifty singing old-time carols as part of the program.

Just what numbers will comprise the organ music depends upon how many requests are received before December 5 by Herbert Hyde of the concert committee; requests should be mailed to him at St. Luke's. From the listings already in hand, some first rate Bach is certain to be heard, and some Christmas music of a high order.

"After Death, What?" Men's Class Subject

The new series of programs for the Young Men's class of the Winnetka Congregational church, is proving of interest to a larger number. Members of the class suggest topics for future discussion. Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin begins the session with a twenty minute talk on the theme suggested, after which there are questions and discussions by the class. "After Death, What?" is the question for consideration Sunday, November 28, at 10 o'clock. The sessions are held in the north Neighborhood room of Community House.

OPENS RUG STUDIO

G. Galbedian, rug dealer, has opened an oriental rug studio at 417 Fourth street, Wilmette, where he is making a specialty of carefully selected oriental rugs as well as oriental novelties in brass. A department for expert cleaning and repair of rugs is also an adjunct of the business.

North Shore Music Lovers Enjoy Work of Francis Rogers

By CRITIC

News comes from New York of a concert given recently by Francis Rogers, baritone, assisted at the piano by Isadore Luckstone. Mr. Rogers has a number of friends in Chicago and on the north shore, and it will be of interest to them to know that his very excellent concert, presented on November 14, at Town hall, was heard by several north shore people.

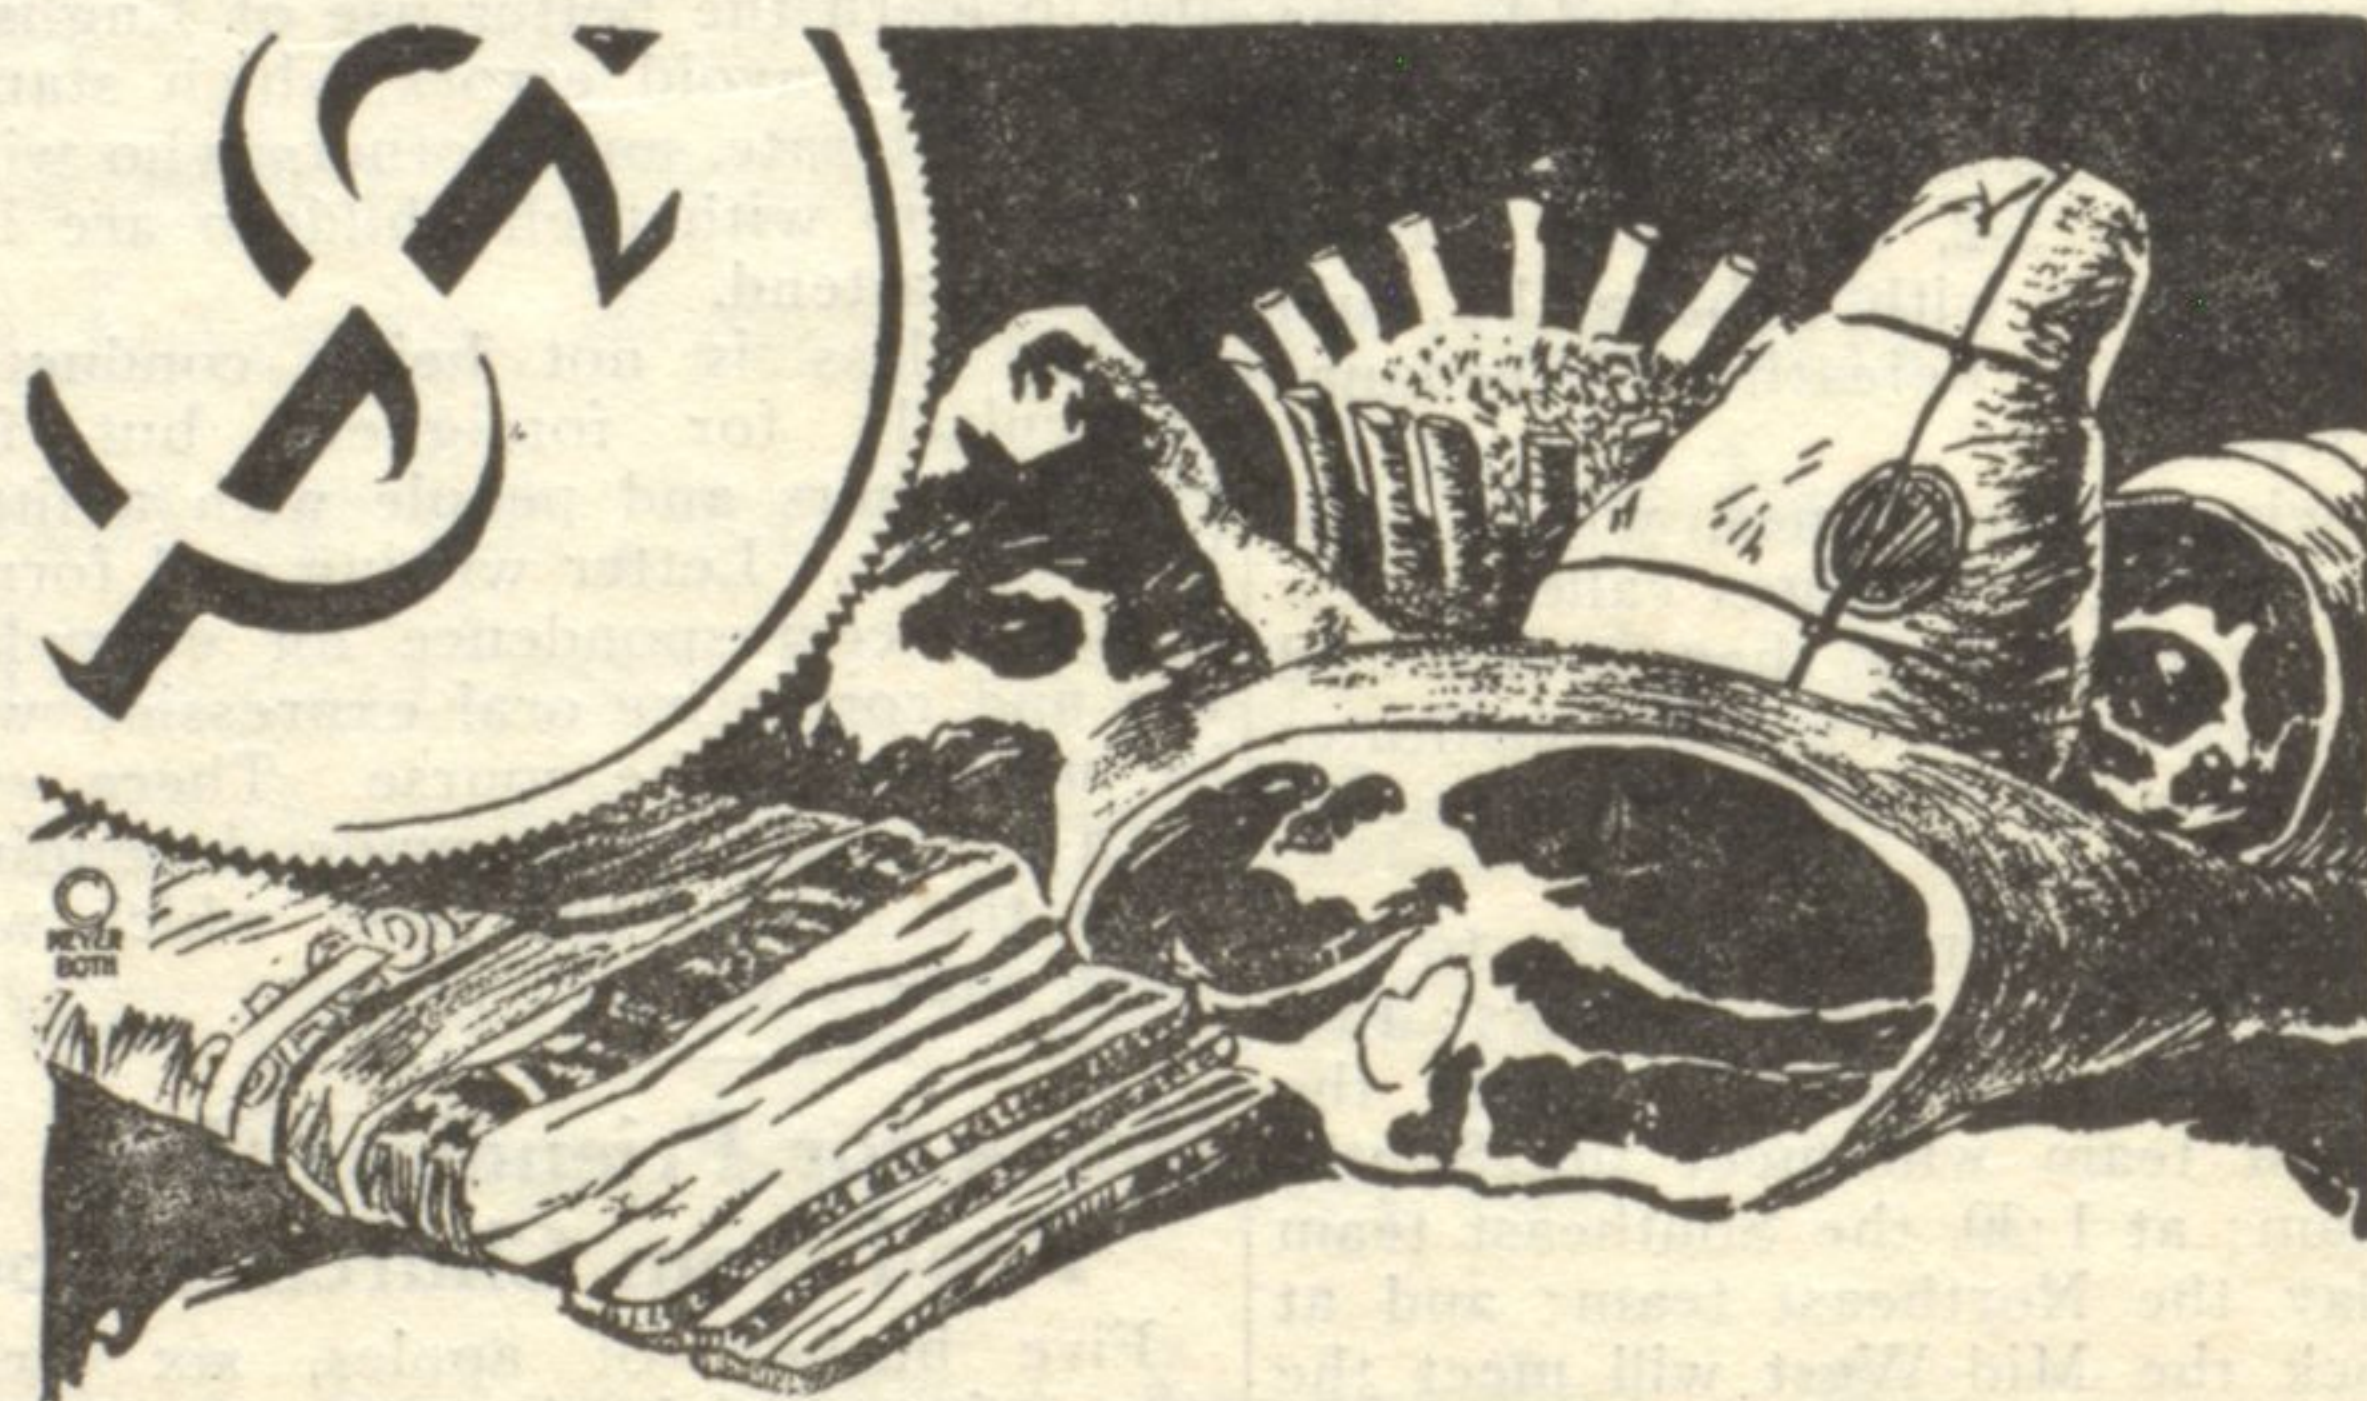

Mr. Rogers' program was selected with unerring delicacy and discrimination, the whole of it possessing great charm, and he sang it with the grace, ease, and fire of a far younger man.

Mr. Luckstone, the white haired accompanist, played the numbers with the skill and feeling of an artist and the deftness of a wizard. For 25 years Mr. Rogers and Mr. Luckstone have worked together in perfect accord. Mr. Rogers is one of the staff of instructors at Juillard, and it is of interest to know that one of his students is Kurtis Brownell of Winnetka, whose winning of the Juillard Fellowship from Chicago was announced earlier in the season.

ACTRESS TO GIVE READING

Mrs. A. J. Balaban of 162 Euclid avenue, Glencoe will open her home on the afternoon of Monday, December 6, for a dramatic reading by Miss Sara Biala of Des Moines, Iowa. Miss Biala is an actress of note. She has played with George Arliss and Margaret Anglin, and is now giving her time to parlor and club programs.

She will begin her program at 2 o'clock and a nominal charge will be made for admission.
