Holiday Anniversary for Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Price of 794 Walden road entertained at a family dinner Thanksgiving day in celebration of the golden wedding of Mrs. Price's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Stevenson of Hudson, Ill. Those present were Mrs. R. H. Carihfield of Columbus, Ohio, Miss Mary Etta Stevenson of Nebraska university, Mrs. Peter Johansen, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Peter Johansen, their son-in-law, and six grandchildren. Another daughter, Mrs. B. H. Robinson of San Jose, Cal., was unable to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson still reside in the old homestead in Hudson where Mrs. Stevenson was born, and also married just fifty years ago on Thanksgiving day.

HOME FOR HOLIDAY

Richard G. Houren, a student at Notre Dame university came home Wednesday evening to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Houren.

ADDRESSES SCHOOL PUPILS

Rev. James Austin Richards, of the Winnetka Congregational church, spoke to a special assembly of the Skokie school at 11:30 Wednesday, on the meaning of Thanksgiving.

The annual Christmas Carol service at New Trier High school will be held Sunday afternoon December 12.

Boy Prodigy Will Be Heard Among Music Recitalists

Walter Spry, well-known pianist and teacher, of the Columbia School of Music, will present his Winnetka pupils in recital at the Branch studio, 545 Lincoln avenue, Saturday afternoon, December 11, at 3 o'clock.

Among those who will take part are: Mrs. I. B. Connor, Mrs. Marcus Richards, Miss Helen Pope, Constance Connor, Marion Reuss and Howard Feiges of Chicago.

Howard Feiges, who is fifteen years old at the present time, comes of Russian parentage. He is considered one of Mr. Spry's most talented pupils, and has the distinction of being the youngest boy to play in the Children's concerts with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under Frederick Stock. He played with the Chicago Symphony two years ago when he was thirteen years old.

Beside playing the Scherzo from the Scottish Symphony by Mendelssohn, he will play a Prelude and Fugue by Bach, and together with Mr. Spry will give a Rondo by Chopin for two pianos.

Another interesting feature of the program will be a duet by Mrs. Connor and Mrs. Richards, by Beethoven.

Following the recital there will be a social hour in the rooms of the studio, and anyone interested is invited to attend the recital.
