

North Shore Observing Holiday by Family Celebration

Family Groups, Army and Navy Festivity Mark Thanksgiving

By JEAN TEN BROECK

The turkey and pumpkin pie season again follows custom and means for the north shore a period of family reunion. Many of the boys and girls whose schools are situated near enough their homes are returning for the short recess, some bringing with them roommates and classmates whose families are too far away for them to join for Thanksgiving dinner. In many, many north shore homes, the usual large family groups gathered on Thursday, and many of our north shore families have gone off on short jaunts to assemble with other relatives for the reunion time.

The Army-Navy game and festivities on Friday and Saturday monopolize the thoughts of society at this immediate time. Fathers and mothers, the younger married set, and attractive young daughters of north shore households find the advent of the personnel of the Army-Navy academies interesting them either from the angle of spectator at the game, guest at the big Army-Navy balls, or both. We hear each day of many debutantes and subdebs whom fortune has favored in this manner, and we do know that the representation from here is large. No large event in Chicago, in fact, is exclusive of north shore participants.

Wedding Takes Place in Light of Candles

A candlelight ceremony marked the marriage of Miss Kathryn Bowes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bowes, Jr., of Evanston and Glencoe, to the Rev. Egbert Bailey Clark, Jr., son of Mrs. Egbert Bailey Clark of Hermosa Beach, Cal., on Tuesday evening, November 16, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Evanston at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. Arthur Rogers officiated at the ceremony. The reception was given in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Frederick M. Bowes at 714 Ashland avenue, Wilmette.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon and bride's lace over flesh satin. The veil was pale flesh tulle embroidered with seed pearls and brilliants. Mrs. Sterling Maxwell of Hinsdale, as matron of honor wore flesh chiffon and silver lace. The bride's sister, Miss Mary Gertrude Bowes, who was maid of honor, wore pink chiffon and silver lace. Both dresses were trimmed with brilliants. Mrs. Hugh McCulloch of Evanston, and Mrs. Charles Stroule of Chicago, the bridesmaids, wore dresses of a deeper pink chiffon.

James W. Prindiville of Winnetka, brother-in-law of Mr. Clark, served as best man, and the bride's brothers, Lawrence and William K. Bowes of San Francisco, and Dwight and Frederick Cossitt of La Grange, acted as ushers. Pink candles furnished the light for the wedding, and large baskets of pink roses and chrysanthemums, together with greens, decorated the altar. The Rev. and Mrs. Clark left on a motor trip to Hermosa Beach, Cal., where they will make their future home.

The North Shore Musical society will have its next meeting on Monday, November 29, at the home of Mrs. E. L. Essley of 234 Warwick road, Kenilworth.

Makes Her Bow

Reick Studios

Miss Ellen Stuart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stuart of 90 Sheridan road, Winnetka who are spending the winter at the Lake Shore Drive hotel, was introduced to society at a reception given Saturday, November 13. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart gave a dinner for the assistants and their escorts and then took their guests to a performance of "She Couldn't Say No."

Benefit Dance Postponed

Due to the fact that the first of the Assembly parties is scheduled to take place Friday, December 10, the day chosen by the Vocational Society for Shut-Ins as the time for a benefit ball, and due to other conflicting dates and affairs, the ball announced last week has been postponed until after the first of the year.

The holiday season is too busy a time, the committee decided to arrange a large and successful benefit ball, with the younger people coming home from schools far and near, and the debutantes giving their pre-announced dances.

Post-Thanksgiving Bridge

The North Shore Alumnae association of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, of which Mrs. Alfred R. Bates is president, gave a bridge party yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Harrison hall, 2770 Sheridan road, Evanston-Wilmette.

It was a benefit for the college building fund. Students who remained over the Thanksgiving recess enjoyed this event with the alumnae and their friends.

Mrs. Benjamin Affleck of 695 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, presided at one of the tea tables at the bridge-tea the Government club of Chicago Yacht club Monday. P. H. Seymour gave a short talk on "Auction Bridge."

The North End circle of the Congregational church will meet Monday, November 29, at the home of Mrs. C. D. Ewer, 1111 Ashland avenue. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

October Bride

Reick Studios

The marriage of Miss Elsie Larned Blatchford to Ludlow Sebring Fowler of New York took place the evening of October 21. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wickes Blatchford of Winnetka.

Busy Days for Emily Scott and Attendants

Miss Emily Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott of 175 Sheridan road, Glencoe, whose marriage to Langdon Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hubbard of Grosse Point, Mich., will take place Saturday, December 4, is being feted by a large group of Chicago and north shore friends.

Mrs. Carl Seibolt entertained at a luncheon and bridge Wednesday, November 17, in Miss Scott's honor. On Monday, November 29, Miss Mary Carroll of Chicago will give a bridge luncheon for her. Mrs. Donald Welles of Lake Forest, Miss Scott's cousin, is also giving a luncheon and bridge Tuesday, November 30.

Adding to the week's festivities, Miss Margaret Scott of Evanston will entertain at a luncheon and matinee party Wednesday, December 1. Miss Joan Stuart is giving a spinster dinner and theater party that same evening. During the same week, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott will give a dinner at the Saddle and Cycle club and a theater party in honor of their niece.

The day before the wedding, Miss Louise Tyler of Chicago, who is a member of the bridal party, is giving a luncheon just preceding the wedding rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott are giving the bridal dinner at the Casino Friday evening, December 3.

Mr. Hubbard is having his share of entertaining in Detroit, where the bachelor dinner will be given before he arrives here. His parents will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Scott during their visit here.

Mr. Hubbard and his bride will journey abroad on their honeymoon. After a week in Paris, they will visit St. Moritz, Switzerland for the winter sports. When they return, they will occupy the home of Mr. Hubbard's parents for a time while they are in the west.

Homecoming Xmas Dance for Young Folk December 23

Last year a benefit was conceived and given and called a Homecoming dance because it heralded the return of all the boys and girls from schools and colleges. Its success was marked, financially and socially, so much so that it has been requested this year.

December 23 has been appointed as the day of another such affair when boys and girls of the north shore may gather for one evening to renew acquaintance with old friends and resume touch with north shore life which they may have lost while far distant.

"The party will mean fun. An entertainment is being arranged that will be a jolly, musical treat, up-to-the-minute in every respect," those in charge announce. "That means that the boys and girls will boost it. Although there will be a splendid orchestra, there will be several specialty numbers, so no one will have a chance to get overtired, or bored. Remember the date, mothers of the north shore, and arrange a dinner for the young people that night."

War Veterans' Work on Sale December 1

An all-day sale of many beautiful and useful articles made by the disabled ex-service men at the Great Lakes hospital will be held Wednesday, December 1, at the Wilmette Woman's club. "Rugs, baskets, bags, scarfs and pottery, including articles made by men in our own unit, 31 West, will be on sale," the committee announces, and further states: "Do some of your Christmas shopping here, where may be found gifts differing from those in the crowded city stores.

"This will be a good time for each club member to bring her donation of a book, records, playing cards, tray favors, patterns, and needles for hooked rugs to help carry on our work at the hospital."

Have Army-Navy Guests

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Belt, 202 Abingdon road, Kenilworth, entertained at Thanksgiving dinner in honor of their house guests, Miss Louise Shibley of Washington, D. C., and Ensigns Tolman, Young, McDonough, and Soutain. Miss Shibley, who is the cousin of Miss Virginia Belt, has been here for the past ten days, and the other guests drove out from Boston, arriving Wednesday, with Lieut. Bailey of Wilmette.

The party will attend the Officers' ball at the Congress hotel on Saturday evening, after they view the Army-Navy game. Miss Shibley and Miss Belt attended the Army-Navy ball last night at the Drake hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Belt are taking their guests to the Auditorium hotel for the week-end.

Assist at Debut

Miss Carolyn Case of Hubbard Woods, Miss Jean Milsted, Miss Elizabeth Merrill, Miss Mary Louise Fenton of Winnetka, and Miss Judith Boddie, formerly of the same village, were among the assisting debutantes at the debut breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Albert Quan of Evanston gave for their daughter, Miss Margaret, Thanksgiving morning at the Opera club from 11 until 1 o'clock. Miss Quan was hostess at a luncheon and theater party for her assistants following the reception.
