

A 950 Ton Treasure Chest

Behind a massive door—within walls of steel, many of the valuables of Evanston lie in safety.

Time was when it was impossible to obtain such extreme safety in Evanston. But now, deep down below our building, protected by tons of steel and stone, the State Bank and Trust Company stands guard over our securities.

There's room in that same vault for yours. Visit our vault room and you will understand how carefree you can be with your valuables here.
