

OLD FASHIONED HOSPITALITY

The Georgian was designed and built, not as a hotel institution but as a residential home for people of refinement.

The atmosphere of home-likeness, congeniality and solid comfort pervades public rooms as well as suites.

You will like the old fashioned hospitality and the new fashioned conveniences of The Georgian.

Congregation Meets to Consider Plans for Church Edifice

The North Shore Congregation Israel, which has for some time been considering the matter of building a religious center will meet Monday evening of next week to hear reports of the building and finance committees which have been formulating the initial steps in the project.

The meeting will be held in Community House, Winnetka, and will be preceded by a dinner, at which all members of the congregation are urged to be present.

The plan is to build at the northwest corner of Vernon and Lincoln avenues, Glencoe, proceeding at once, providing the reports to be heard by the Congregation on next Monday evening, are approved.

The North Shore Congregation Israel has been holding religious services in the Masonic hall, at Glencoe, and Sunday school sessions in the Hubbard Woods public school. The membership is growing and for some time visions and plans of its own home have been formulating. Now, they appear near to realization.

The North Shore Chess club met yesterday at the home of Joseph Schumacker, 6542 Newgard avenue, Rogers Park, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The members played another match. At the last meeting Capt. Stanley Rich's team won nine games, and Capt. A. F. Eason's team, five games.

Friendship Circle Sells Tickets for It's Christmas Hop

Several members of the Friendship circle, and other friends from along the north shore, were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. B. Cormany of 548 Maple avenue, Friday evening, November 19, at 8 o'clock, in honor of Miss Estelle Dickman.

The occasion was Miss Dickman's birthday. Miss Dickman is a member of the Friendship circle, many of her friends, members of that club, being present.

Following informal dancing and games, a buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock.

The list of guests included, Miss Estelle Dickman, Miss Hazel Clayton, Miss Katherine Henseler, Miss Lily Hardy, Miss Rose Henseler, Miss Marie Cassel, Miss Mabel Steikling, Miss Marquerrte Gallagher, Miss Ada Fegan, Miss Cora Hain, Miss Hattie Eblert, and Miss Nellie Garde.

For the long, long night is passing,
And then cometh the golden day;
I come to my own who love Me,
To take them all away.

It may be today or tomorrow,
Soon it will surely be;
Then past are the tears and sorrow,
Then Home forever with Me.
