

WINNETKA AND GLENCOE SUPPORT MISSION WORK

was made that the women should organize themselves, conduct their own meetings, and decide what they thought the purpose of their club should be. After considerable discussion, they decided, first of all, to bring in their friends and augment the size of the group, so that more Italian women could get the benefit of their meetings. Second, they asked:

"Do you suppose you could get someone to come and talk to us, who could tell us how to fix up our homes so they will look like your American homes? And what we should feed our kids? We know we don't give them the right things to eat, but we don't know how. And what should we eat ourselves? Why do we get so fat? Why can't we be slim and pretty like American women?"

So, the urge to better their standard of living has grown in one year's contact. As these women do improve their homes, do learn to feed their families more scientifically, the news will spread from neighbor to neighbor. New ideals will be established, more people will want to learn, and an endless chain will be started which leads to better living, better standards, better health, higher regard for America and her ways, laws and costumes. The second and third generation will be Americans, rather than Italians, and lose their racial identity very largely as they are assimilated into the population.

Direct Children's Play

Working with youngsters in their play; insisting upon the simple honesty of fair play and good sportsmanship builds ideals faster than anything else. You should see the gymnasium instructor down on his knees in the middle of the floor with a line-up of boys waiting to turn somersaults over him to realize that here is personal contact with a vengeance—real man to man contact that grows into boyish respect for the leadership of their instructor. Boys are hero worshipers the world around, and Onward Mission would rather provide the hero than have some gang bully establish misguided ideals.

It is a great piece of work, one which is being worked out on the ground as it develops. Out of it should come a notable contribution to the melting pot problem—one worthy of the active interest and support of both north shore communities.

Mr. and Mrs. George Karnes of 151 Fuller lane, Winnetka entertained eleven guests at Thanksgiving dinner Thursday, November 25. Included in the company were Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Reynolds, and Richard Lloyd of Wausaw, Ind., who will spend the entire week-end in Winnetka, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. McIntyre and their daughter, Mary Jane, of Riverside, Ill., and Miss Grace Karnes of Riverside.

Snider-Cazel Firm Buys Drug Concern in Hubbard Woods

The Snider-Cazel Drug company of Wilmette this week announced the purchase of the North Shore Pharmacy at 940 Linden avenue, Hubbard Woods. The Hubbard Woods establishment will be under the same general management as the Wilmette store, it was stated by Ernest C. Cazel, president and active head of the Snider-Cazel firm.

Mr. Cazel has been engaged in the drug business in Wilmette and Winnetka for the past twenty-three years and has a wide personal acquaintance in both communities. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the north shore clientele and promises to conduct the Hubbard Woods store on the same general plan as obtains at Wilmette. The firm slogan "We have it, we'll get it, or it isn't made," will be applied in Hubbard Woods just as it has been literally applied in Wilmette for so many years, says Mr. Cazel.

Magistrate Northrop of Tower road has returned from a ten day trip to New York state where he was the guest of his eighty-six year old sister, who, the judge says, is spryer than he by far. Mrs. Northrop, who has been ill, is much improved.

Miss Marian Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Fulton of 884 Hill road, will spend the Thanksgiving holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard BeOut of Loudonville and Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Fulton, who is a student at Northwestern university, has earned a place on the Woman's Varsity Hockey team, and is working for the swimming team.

Mrs. Herbert R. Hedman of 115 Fuller lane, was hostess to twenty guests at luncheon and bridge, Friday, November 19.
