BUSY ON BAZAAR WORK

Girls' Club at New Trier High School to Present Gay Scene at Scholarship Benefit December 4

The Girls' club of New Trier High school is holding a bazaar in the Mess hall of the school Saturday, December 4, to open promptly at 12 o'clock. During the afternoon, from 3 to 4 o'clock, the club will present Booth Tarkington's play, "The Ghost Story," in the school auditorium, which will be repeated in the evening between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock. Dancing is to conclude the day's program.

Preparations for the bazaar have been in progress since the beginning of the school term, the club members having worked in adviser room groups, though each girl has been invited to contribute to any feature of the bazaar, regardless of the particular phase of the work undertaken by her group. There are to be eight booths, in addition to a tea room and refreshment stand. Several groups are taking charge of the checkroom, while others are to be concerned with ticket selling for the play. Every girl in the club is to have a task in the conduct of the fete.

There will be a French booth displaying all manner of dainty lingerie and boudoir accessories, and an Art booth with hand painted scarves, Christmas cards, lamp shades, trays and other articles especially suitable as holiday gifts. Big chrysanthemums from the Flower booth are intended to make gay holiday bouquets. The Doll booth will be literally loaded down with cunning woolen dolls dressed in gay red cloaks, and snuggly toys for little kiddies' Christmas stockings. The Grab Bag is being kept a deep secret. Then, there will be the miscellaneous booth, the Candy Basket, and the Dutch Oven laden with toothsome delicacies sold by little dutch girls.

At the tearoom all kinds of sandwiches and hot drinks will be served, and the refreshment stand will dispense doughnuts and cider.

Last year the Girls' club bazaar netted $1,800 and the goal this season has been set at $2,000. The proceeds are directed into a scholarship fund to aid deserving students in need of financial assistance to complete their courses at the school.
