Hold Music Appreciation Program at Local School

The second of the Music Appreciation series being offered at the Skokie school was presented by the Misses Faillard and Cook, of Concord, Conn., at a special assembly Wednesday morning. Balkan folk songs, sung in the native tongues, and dances featured by native costuming made up the entire program.

The same program was given at each of the other three schools; at the Horace Mann school under the auspices of an appreciation series made possible by the personal supervision and backing of Thomas Whitney Surette, musical advisor of the school.

Mrs. W. B. Biddle of Melford, Ore., is visiting her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Biddle of 290 Forrest avenue.

PLAN SKOKIE BAZAAR

Articles in Variety in the Making in Various Departments of School; Date Is December 10

Plans are proceeding rapidly for the Christmas bazaar which will be held at the Skokie school Friday, December 10. Various departments have been working at high speed in order to produce the large number of articles which will be placed on sale when the doors open at 2 o'clock on that day. In the sewing department every one has been busy dressing dolls and incidentally, they have produced a family of dolls that would make any department store justly jealous. There are French dolls, baby dolls, mama dolls, and papa dolls; in fact it is entirely possible that there are even flapper dolls, and all are ready for adoption into somebody's home at Christmas time.

In the metal working department copper and pewter articles are being turned out by the dozen. There are card trays and ash trays; butter dishes and other dishes, book ends and napkin rings, match boxes and paper knives, and even large pewter platters fit to hold the prettiest turkey or fat hen that ever headed toward becoming be-headed.

And the Art and Cooking departments are far from behind in their contributions. Hand painted articles of all kinds have been added to the list, shoe-trees, coat hangers, hand painted Christmas cards, and what not swell the list to overflowing. And the cooking—oi yoi the cooking—well the cookies, cakes, candies and other goodies furnished from the "cook's own ladle" should be enough to tempt even dyspeptic old Scrooge until he would eat enough to melt his "cash-box" heart. It is rather suspected that "General Public" will be there in force.
