DRAMA CLUB MEETS

Spirit of Harvest Heaped With Gifts for Nursery School

Students of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college and children of the college demonstration school, took part in a Thanksgiving festival last Wednesday afternoon, November 24. Enthroned against a great golden disk sat the Spirit of Harvest, and as the faculty students and children passed by, bearing their gifts, the fruits of the harvest were heaped high around her on the stage and filled to the brim the great boxes and barrels on either side.

The children thoroughly enjoyed the experience, and walked quietly across the stage, deposited their gifts wherever it suited their fancy, greatly interested in the stage setting and the audience—so much so that one little boy forgot to leave his gift and came running back with it.

The Russian harvest hymn and an antiphonal psalm of Thanksgiving by the choir were a very impressive part of the service and children and adults alike enjoyed the Thanksgiving story told by Miss Edna Dean Baker.

Several barrels of potatoes, apples and vegetables, jellies, preserves, flour supply of soap, perfume, tooth brushes and other articles for which the nursery school had asked, were loaded on the truck that night and sent down to the children at Mary Crane Nursery school, Hull House.
