New Trier Groups Plan to Please at Bazaar Lunches

Several advisor groups at New Trier high school are joining together in taking charge of the tea room at the girls' bazaar. Their motto is "good food attractively served," and they urge everyone to come to the balcony of the mess hall and sample their wares. The booths and other parts of the bazaar are in charge of other rooms, but the tea room, where a delightful little lunch and tea is served, is in charge of an active group of girls who are sure to make a success of the venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simpson and their children, who have been located temporarily at 796 Center street, will move shortly into their new home on Starr road, in Winnetka Heights.

Married

Mrs. John Stenlund was Miss Myrtle Parson of Winnetka. The marriage took place Saturday, November 27, at Community House.

SELL WINNETKA HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haviland have recently sold their home at 102 Church road and have moved to the Georgian Hotel, Evanston, where they will live during the winter.

Dan F. Stilling, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Stilling of 159 Bertling lane, Winnetka, spent Thanksgiving day with his parents. Dan is a student at Knox college in Galesburg, Ill.
