

MOTHER'S CLUB TO MEET

The Young Mother's club meets at the home of Mrs. M. P. Tilley, 428 Willow road, Winnetka, Monday afternoon, December 6. Mrs. P. J. Church and Mrs. T. Mathieson will be assistant hostesses. The affair will be a Christmas party and all members and honorary members are invited. Guests will be welcome.

The Illinois Traction System was the first electric railway in the world to operate sleeping cars.

McLean country led the state of Illinois in value of crops produced in 1925.

Congregational Society in Annual Meet Tuesday

The forty-fourth annual meeting of the Chicago Congregational Missionary and Extension society will be held at Hotel La Salle, Chicago, Tuesday evening, December 7, at 7 o'clock p. m., preceded by a reception at 5:30 and dinner at 6:15. North shore people interested in the society and the work are invited to be present. Directors of the society will be elected at this meeting, a report given of the progress of the work during the past year and other business transacted.

North Shore Artists Show Work at Evanston Exhibit

The annual art exhibit sponsored by the Evanston Woman's club is now being held in the clubhouse, and is open to the public every afternoon and evening from its beginning on Tuesday, until Saturday night, December 4.

Among the north shore artists exhibiting are Mrs. Ashton Taylor, Mrs. Gordon Wilson, and William Schmedtgen of Wilmette, Percy Eckhardt of Kenilworth, Nina Engelhardt, Mrs. Marie Gallagher, Albert Ullrich, Allen Philbrick, Tom Wilder of Winnetka, Frank and Elizabeth Peyraud, Carl Buehr, James and Hazel Ewell and Rudolph Ingerle of Ravinia.

Lusk in Recital

Milan Lusk, internationally known violinist, residing at 810 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, who has recently appeared in recitals in New York and New Jersey, will be heard Friday evening, December 3, before the Kenilworth club. The program, which will be of unusual interest includes also Irene Pavlovska, mezzo-soprano of the Chicago Civic Opera and Charles Norman Granville, baritone. Lusk also has an engagement this week with the Choral society in St. Louis, Mo., and a joint recital with Alma Peterson, soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera, in Waukesha, Wis.

Improvement Group Hears How Village Is Governed

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, a member of the village council of Winnetka, gave an interesting talk at the meeting of the Indian Hill Improvement association Monday evening, on "How Winnetka Is Governed," the origin of the name of Winnetka, and many other interesting things pertaining to the village.

B. F. Afflick also gave an interesting talk on the tree planting program of Winnetka.

Arthur Bonnet, of Kenilworth, attended the meeting to obtain signatures to the petition which is being circulated for a bond issue with which to acquire No Man's Land.

Don't hang your hopes on a Clothes Line

THERE are many pleasanter duties than doing or supervising the weekly wash. A few words on the telephone or to Bill the Washington Laundry Man and washday is removed from your calendar — your mind — and your home.

CALL IN BILL, THE WASHINGTON LAUNDRY MAN — HE'S IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD TODAY

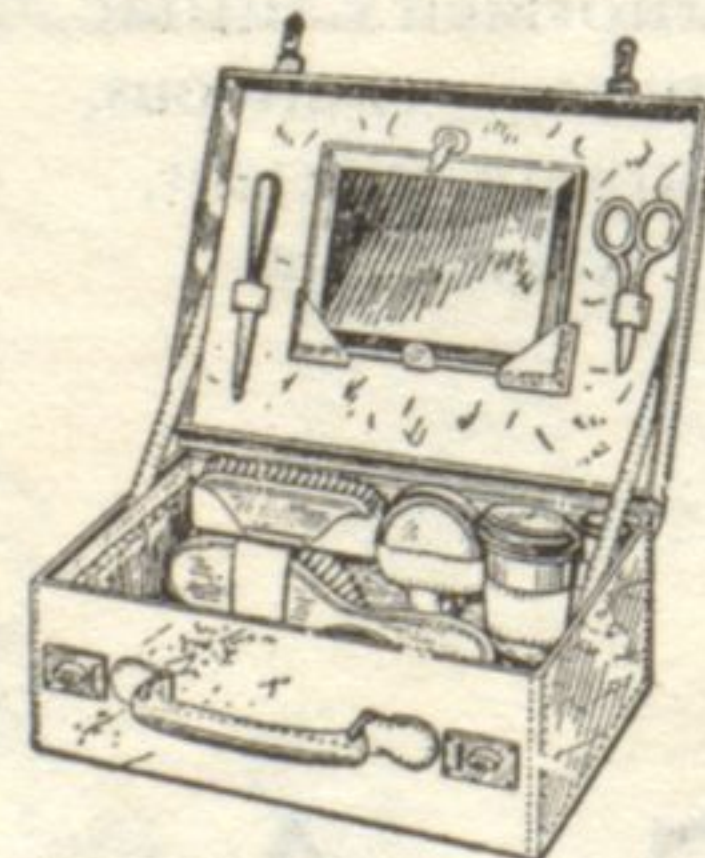

The Washington Laundry
 700-704 Washington Street EVANSTON, ILL.
 Phone WILMETTE 1-5

Avoid the Christmas Rush this Year

A short spin in your car—perhaps only a pleasant walk from your home—you will find this quiet, distinctive and intimate little shop a marvelous help in gift selection.

The stock comes direct from our Chicago store—a compact but representative offering from Europe and America—with the same courteous service which distinguishes Spaulding's in Chicago and Paris.

An attractive variety of gifts in ladies' fitted overnight bags of pigskin and novelty leathers. Also silver, glass, pottery and novelty jewelry

SPAULDING & CO.
 1636 Orrington Ave., EVANSTON
 Michigan at Van Buren, CHICAGO
 23 Rue de la Paix, PARIS