Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Mayer of 1278 Scott avenue entertained Thanksgiving night in honor of several Northwestern university football stars, and members of Mr. Mayer's fraternity, the Delta Tau Delta. Mr. Mayer, an ex-Northwestern football player, included Leland Lewis, Ralph Baker, Waldo Fisher and many others in the group of the forty invited guests.

The Winnetka Child Study class met this past week at the home of Mrs. Alfred Alschuler of 795 Lincoln avenue, to hear Professor Ernest Horn of the State University of Iowa. Professor Horn is an authority on education, and addressed the members of the club on, "The Spiritual Needs of Adolescence."

Miss Jeanette Mayer of Norfolk, Neb., Weston Benjamin of Rush Medical college, and Miss Helen Foster of Beverly Hills, were the guests of Miss Margery Windes of 873 Spruce street over the past week-end.

Mrs. Thomas H. Ratcliffe of 804 Lincoln avenue has returned from Washington, D. C., where she visited her daughter, Miss Vivian Ratcliffe.

Beauty Lies in Healthy EYES

It's not so much the size or color of the EYES that makes them beautiful. Rather, it's the glow which radiates from them. Unless kept always clean and healthy, EYES lack this alluring lustre.

Millions of women throughout the world promote EYE health and beauty with Murine. It cleanses EYES of irritating particles and keeps them clear and bright. Contains no belladonna.

Our illustrated books on "Eye Care" or "Eye Beauty" are FREE on request.

Rathbones Leaving Tomorrow to Spend Winter at Capital

During this last week of their stay in Kenilworth, Congressman and Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth have been guests of honor at the following affairs: Mrs. John Glenn Shaffer entertained at luncheon Monday at the Woman's Athletic club, and in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Staver gave a dinner for them. Tuesday, Mrs. Frederick T. Vaux entertained at luncheon at the Lake Shore Drive hotel, and in the afternoon Mrs. Rathbone was the guest of Miss Olga Menn at the Junior Friends of Art tea to hear the Cadman lecture. That same evening, Congressman and Mrs. Rathbone were guests of honor at a dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Hoyt at the Chicago Athletic club, followed by a theater party.

Wednesday, Mrs. Andrew F. Sheriff gave a luncheon and bridge for Mrs. Rathbone, and Mrs. Charles Hayes of Winnetka was hostess at a dinner and box party for the Rathbones in the evening. The following day, Mrs. Willis Orville Mance gave a luncheon and bridge at the South Shore Country club. A dinner was given that evening by Mrs. Florence French, editor of the Musical Leader, to which several of the Chicago Opera company stars were invited to meet the Rathbones. Mrs. John L. Little will be a luncheon hostess today, and this evening Mrs. George E. Sevey will entertain the Rathbones at a dinner and opera party.

The Rathbones are leaving Kenilworth tomorrow for New York, where they will spend a week or ten days before establishing themselves in Washington for the congressional season. They will reside at the Lafayette Square hotel.

In February Mrs. Rathbone plans to leave for Palm Beach, to go from there to Nassau and Havana.
