

Kindergarten Experts to Speak at Education Meet

The Central Council of Childhood Education will hold its monthly meeting in the Central Eleanor Club rooms, 17 N. State street, Chicago, Saturday morning, December 4, at 10:30 o'clock. The State Kindergarten-Primary association of Illinois and Indiana are presenting an interesting program at this meeting, the speakers being S. K. McDowell, superintendent of schools, Bloomington, Ill., Mrs. H. B. Fisher of the Parent-Teacher association, Streator, Ill., Mrs. Barr of Joliet and Miss Mabel Osgood, primary supervisor, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Reservations for the luncheon following the meeting may be made through Miss Elizabeth Weaver, Central Eleanor club, Chicago.

WINS GRID HONORS

Alvin Culver, Jr., has been awarded his freshman numeral in football at the University of Illinois. Mr. Culver, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Culver of 103 Broadway avenue, Wilmette, was at home after the close of the football season to spend the Thanksgiving holidays. Leo Martin of the University of Toronto was also a guest of the Culvers for the holidays.

Harrison Hall Dons Greenwich Village Garb for Bazaar

The holiday shops of Greenwich Village, with imported novelties, brass, pottery, pictures, beads, Coolie coats, pajamas and attractive gifts of every description, will open this afternoon at 3 o'clock for a brisk day's business, closing at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Village has been transported to Harrison hall for the day by the faculty of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college for the purpose of raising funds for the college building and equipment funds.

A magic train, clever puppet shows, and other attractions have been provided for the entertainment of the children, and the Plantation Tea room, with a band of minstrels recruited from among the college professors, and crispy waffles, maple syrup and sausages served by Aunt Dinah, will furnish entertainment for the grown-ups as well as the children.

A jazzy orchestra has been secured to provide music for the Dime Dance Friday evening, and the card party room promises to be a popular corner of the building.

Miss Margaret Farrar is in charge of the booths, decorations, and costumes for the bazaar. Miss Etta Mount is providing a group of dancers to enliven the Village streets, and every member of the faculty is working to make the bazaar a success. Miss Laura Hooper, chairman of the bazaar, has placed the various booths in charge of the following members of the faculty and staff:

Miss Clara Baker, Polish novelties; Miss Agnes Adams, The Bakeree and Candy shop; Mrs. Louis L. Kimball, pottery; Miss Frances Kern, beads; Miss Frances McElroy, Miss Ruth Peterson, pictures; Miss Florence Rjce, stationery; Miss Violet Rush, brass and copper; Miss Helen Ecker, ready to use; Miss Margaret Anderson, Coolie coats and pajamas; Miss Virginia Solbery, the magic train; Miss Anna Markt, pennants and Northwestern university football dolls.

Mrs. G. W. Hervey of Omaha is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. Nye Macalister, 918 Ashland avenue, for the Christmas season.

Ninety-eight per cent of the coal used in Illinois is mined within the state.
