Vet Thanks Women for Remembering Disabled Soldiers

As a result of the sale held November 30 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Joyce of 531 Essex road, Kenilworth, one of the wounded veterans for whom the sale was promoted, wrote the following thanks. The name of this man and any others may be had upon request from Mrs. Joyce, it is said.

My Respects to One Who Makes Life Happier for Disabled Veterans at Great Lakes Hospital—

The other day sitting in silence in my chair
Thinking of my boyhood home, young days and Mother Dear,
Then all at once my thoughts reverted back,
To where I were, and why, at that.

It seemed everything wrong, nothing right,
I only accepted that, as a matter in my fight,
My attention was attracted just then,
By the presence of three women.

They stopped at a bed, at right entrance of door,
It was McCartney, they had met before,
Then to my bed came one of the ladies,
Of course up out my chair I made a hoist.

After a few words and cordial greetings,
Mrs. Joyce, says is there anything you are needing?
I was badly in need, that's a fact,
I tried to talk without admitting that.

As we talked this, and that,
I admitted I need, suit of clothes, overcoat, and hat,
These she brought forward, just my size,
Now how they are cherished as an excellent prize.

Honestly I've never been positioned this way before,
But War Service caused that knock at my door,
Your kindness I'll never forget,
Your visit brings joy to all of us boys.

Please accept my good thoughts, as best you can,
Such hospitality of kindness should make good men,
I spend no thoughts of heaven and hell,
But wish good people, like you, could with us always dwell.
