Muenzer Trio Is to Play at Chamber Music Concert

The Muenzer trio that frequently has charmed north shore lovers of music, reappears Sunday afternoon, December 12, on the occasion of the second concert given this season by the North Shore Chamber Music association. The program, which will consist of the Quartet in E flat major, Opus 16, by Beethoven, and the Trio in D major, Opus 33, by Ewald Stroesser, will be presented at 4 o'clock, in the Kenilworth Assembly hall.

The announcement is made that subscriber's tickets for any given date may be used on any other concert day.

Glencoe Would Avoid Ravines on Route 42

The Village of Glencoe has asked the Village council of Winnetka to consider the matter of paving Green Bay road and possibly Tower road in Winnetka, with a view of making this a part of route 42 instead of Sheridan road through the ravine and Hubbard hill section.

The concrete paving of Sheridan road south to Scott avenue has recently been completed and proceedings have been started to pave Scott avenue to Green Bay road and Green Bay road to the Winnetka limits.

Mrs. Roy H. Jarrett, 534 Essex road, Kenilworth entertained her card club Thursday, December 9.

Guild Members Are Guests at Opening of Town-Gown Plays

Town and Gown Play Shop opened its season with the presentation of three one-act plays in Annie May Swift auditorium, Northwestern university, four nights this week.

The first performance was given Tuesday evening for students. Wednesday and Thursday evenings were given over to the North Shore Theater guild, and Friday evening to the playwriting class, and guests. The three plays given were: "Spirals," "The Weather Cock Elopess," and "Together Alone."

The plays presented by the Play Shop are written by the play writing class under the direction of Theodore B. Hinkley. F. Theodore Cloak, director of the Town and Gown Play Shop, has charge of the presentation.

"Spirals" by Marion L. Nelson is a serious play with a tragic situation. The cast was as follows: Mary, Mrs. Solomon P. Perry; Nita, Mrs. William D. Sidley; John, William R. Nelson; Claude, Mr. Eugene Macy; a waiter, James Witherell. The prompters were Dorothy Tinley and Geraldine McKinley.

"The Weathercock Elopess" by Alice C. D. Riley is a fantasy with the following cast: Dighty, Katherine Parish; Jackie, Gladys Pfeffer; Andrew, Mr. Victor Hoppe; Miss Greensleeves, Mrs. Theresa Gross Thomas. Ellen Lytle was the prompter.

The third play is a farce comedy, "Together Alone" by Helen Hill. The cast consisted of Mr. Seabury, Alfred Povah; Mrs. Seabury, Beulah Larkin; Griselda, Margaret Fuller; Jimmy, Hassel Taylor; Ione Pierce was prompter.

The business manager for the three plays was Harriet Lassen and the stage manager, Dorothy Parmenter.

New Trier Shows Market Progress in Grid Play

New Trier High school's football squad closed its season of play with a record of four games won and as many defeats. This record, while in itself not one to boast about, indicates a marked improvement in that sport over the seasons of 1924 and 1925.

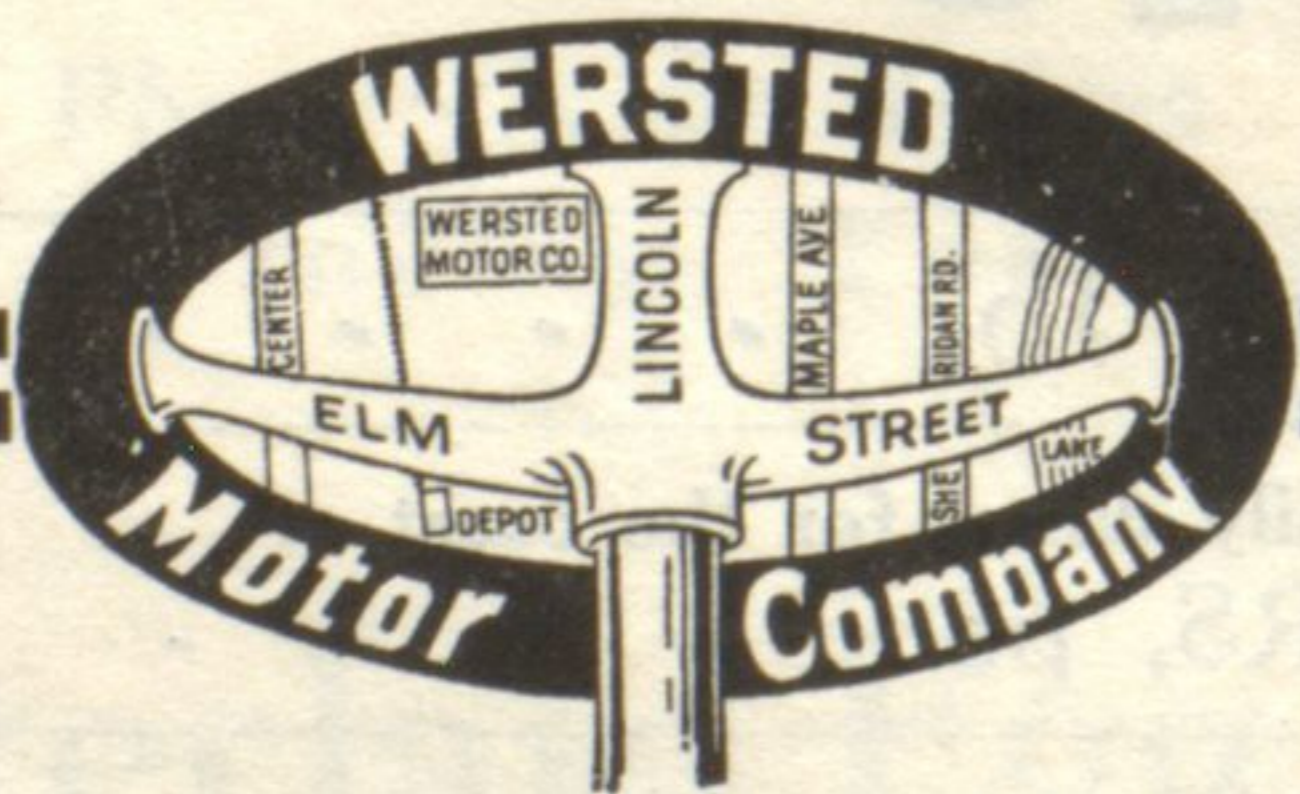

In 1924, New Trier won two games, and lost six. The squad scored sixty-two points, while opponents scored two hundred and fifteen. The following season New Trier also won two, but played one less game, making the total of games lost, five. The scores compared more favorably with those of opponents. This year New Trier played eight games, won four, and lost four. The north shore squad scored 122 points, as against 102 by opponents.
