

Catholic Women Honor Prelate at Ceremonies

Fifteen members of Wilmette Court No. 848, Catholic Daughters of America, attended a reception given for the Illinois Court in honor of Bishop Hafeg. The reception was held Sunday, December 5, at the Margaret and Mary church, Chicago.

Father McCarty was toastmaster. Bishop Hafeg told in his talk about the new building for the Catholic home for working girls. Bishop Hafeg, who is from North Carolina, is the national chaplain.

Other speakers were: Father McCarty, who is state chaplain; Mrs. Helen Meagher, national director; Miss Alice Trewialler, state regent; Miss Helen Jans, president of the Chicago assembly; Miss Josephine Birong, grand regent of Martha court; Mrs. Garrison, grand regent of Mary court; and Miss Julia M. Deal, president of the Chicago Club for Catholic Women.

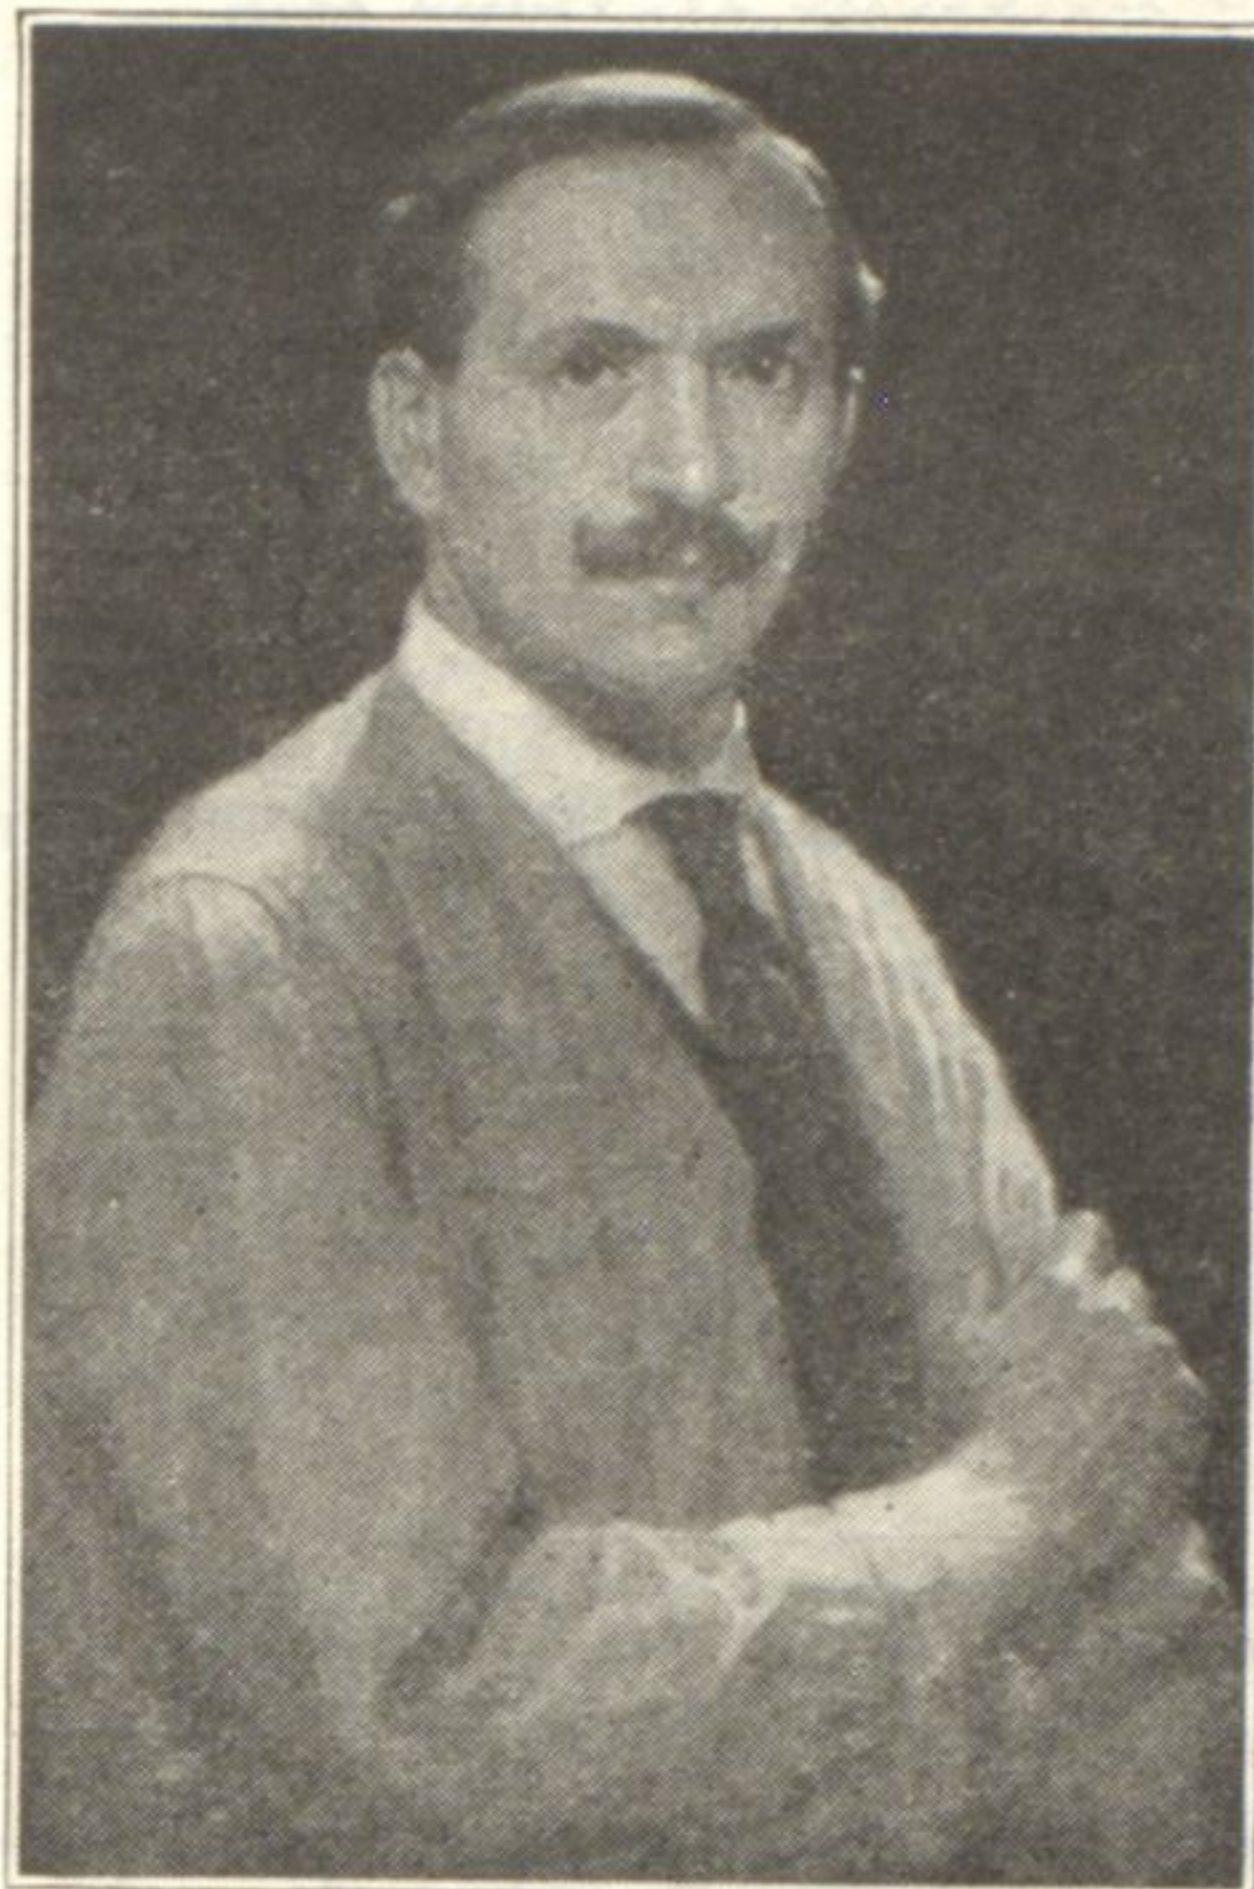

Songs were sung by members of the church. Refreshments were served in the church cafeteria by the Mary and Martha Courts.

SING CHRISTMAS CAROLS

The Young Mother's club of Wilmette met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Milton P. Tilley at 428 Willow road, Winnetka. Thirty members were present and sang Christmas carols during the afternoon. Miss Howell sang "Birthday of the Lord" and "Sonny Boy." A grab bag was another feature of the meeting.

Judge and Mrs. Theodore Brentano are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bersbach of Indian Hill. Mr. Brentano is American consul at Budapest and is here for the holiday season.

Artist Wins Prize

Antonin Sterba, 917 Edgemere court, represents Evanston among the prize-winners in the annual exhibit by artists of Evanston and the North Shore shown last week at the Woman's club. Mr. Sterba was awarded second prize for his portrait of Mrs. Hugh Delmar, a neighbor. Awards were made by the MacDowell society of Evanston.

Mrs. Harry Clark of 958 Spruce street, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is now much improved in health.
