NEW VARSITY THEATER TO BE OPENED DEC. 23

Evanston's 2500-Seat Playhouse Embodies Novel Ideas in Decoration

Thursday, Dec. 23, will be the opening date of the Varsity, Evanston's new 2,500 seat motion picture theater de luxe, according to announcement made this week by Manager Clyde Elliott. The event is expected to focus the attention not only of the Evanston and North Shore public but also of motion picture people over the country, because of the unusual character of the new theater and of its strategic position.

Evanstonians have a surprise in store for them, it is believed, when they enter the Varsity on the opening day. Prominent theater men who have visited the theater, at Church street and Sherman avenue, as it neared completion have classed it among the most beautiful and most distinctive motion picture houses in the country. In the detailed and faithful developing of atmospheric effects the theater, according to these visitors, sets a new standard.

Scrap Old Ideas

A new conception of theater interiors was worked out for the Varsity, aided by a unique and striking lighting effect. Conventional ideas of theater decoration were scrapped by those who conceived the Varsity, it is reported, in order to give the North Shore one of the outstanding playhouses of the country.

Foyer, lounges, smoking rooms are being furnished and decorated with a luxuriousness in keeping with the rest of the theater.

Iced air in summer time is made possible in the theater by the installation of the newest type of refrigerating and ventilating unit.

The pipe organ was built by the Geneva Organ company and required upwards of a year in the building.

To Feature First-Run Pictures

First run pictures, the most important offerings of filmdom, will be the policy of the Varsity, according to Mr. Elliott.

It is the stated ambition of the management to present entertainment of such merit as to attract theater-goers from not only the north shore towns but from Chicago as well.

Mr. Elliott and his associates also control the New Evanston and the Hoyburn theaters.

Hold Christmas Fete as Laboratory Stage Benefit

January 7 has been set as the tentative date for a Russian Christmas celebration to be held at the Casino club, Chicago for the benefit of the Chicago Laboratory theatre.

At a meeting of the committee sponsoring the theater, which was held at the home of Mrs. William Stanton Monroe, chairman, this novel form of entertainment was decided upon both as a holiday gayety and as a means of raising the fund which is to assure the theater's first public production.

Though the place and the date are not altogether certain because of numerous holiday parties, the Russian Christmas week will be the time, and plans for the program are under way. It will have a Chauve Souris atmosphere no doubt, and a one-act play by the Laboratory Theater company will be its chief feature. Costumes will be in order though not obligatory and that is all that has leaked out as to details.

Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Mrs. Helen Walton and Emily Hamill and a group of Junior leaguers are aiding the regular committee, and will have all the surprise numbers on the program in charge. In the list of those who are interested in the theater and its work are Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. Mason Bross, Mrs. Charles Besley, Mrs. Stuyvesant Peabody, Mrs. Robert Hamill, Mrs. Theodore Ticken, Mrs. Howard Willett, Theodore B. Hinckley and Arthur Meeker, Jr.

THE CAMPUS

"Kosher Kitty Kelley" is on the screen today at the Campus theater. Viola Dana carried the lead. "Morgan's Finish" will be shown when the bill changes Saturday, the screen interpretation of a Jack London story, with Anita Stewart and Johnny Walker in leading roles. "Out of the Storm," featuring Jacqueline Logan and Edmund Burns, will come Monday.

An engagement of interest to residents of Winnetka, is that of Miss Gladys Florence Talbot, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Talbot of 6419 Glenwood avenue, Chicago, to Maurice Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ross of Lincoln, Neb. Mrs. Talbot and her family formerly lived in Winnetka.
