

Christmas Furs at January Prices

AT present we have more skins on hand than we ought to have, and we wish to dispose of them before the first of the year. Now you can buy a coat at January prices and have it for Christmas.

We have a large stock of very fine Hudson Seals, both on Hollanders and imported dyes. Coats made of these trimmed elaborately in beige, platinum, red, brown or black fox, Kolinsky or Russian Ermine, or squirrel. And the prices range from $325 to $500.

We also have a large stock of fine, soft, silky and lustrous black caracul. Garments of these skins made to order would cost from $200 to $300, and would be lined with pure silk of all descriptions.

Holiday Remodeling

If you want your coat remodeled now, we are prepared to handle a few jobs for the holidays, and at more reasonable prices than the average furrier can charge for work done in the spring. That will give you the pleasure of having your coat to wear the balance of the winter to wear like a new coat. You take no risk in entrusting your furs to us, as we are recognized as experts of long standing.
