A SCENE AT DAVENPORT

PUTTING GREEN, LAWN SHUFFLE BOARD AND CROQUET ON THE LAWN OF HOLLY HILL INN, DAVENPORT.

The Diary

- Dec. 1. Arrived Davenport middle of afternoon. Fine trip. Accommodations reserved at Holly Hill Inn are splendid. Weather mild and clear. Discarded overcoat. Good dinner. Met some people from Chicago.
- Dec. 2. Bright day with a tang in the air. Feeling fine. Ate hearty breakfast. Motored to my grove in the Holly Hill Groves. Trees in wonderful condition. Beautiful sight. Tried a hand at lawn shuffleboard. Great game. Arranging foursome with local golfers for tomorrow.
- Dec. 3. Another wonderful day. Played 18 holes on Holly Hill links. One of the finest and sportiest courses I have ever seen. My score was 98. Appetite gets better daily. Joined bridge game this evening.
- Dec. 4. Feeling fine after good sleep. Grapefruit at breakfast picked from my grove. Wonderful flavor. Old Sol on the job. Motored through residential section of Davenport. Saw many beautiful new homes, some only recently built. This town is growing. Only 9 holes today. Wrote some letters. Retired early.
- Dec. 5. Weather warmer. Played lawn shuffleboard with guest acquaintances. Doing better. Played 18 holes on lawn putting green. Inspected the gorgeous rose gardens on the Inn grounds. Motored to Winter Haven in the afternoon. Wonderful grove country.
- Dec. 6. More fresh grapefruit and plenty of oranges. 18 holes today and made a 97. Improving. Made up party and motored to Mountain Lake Park where Edward Bok and many millionaires have beautiful homes. Fine trip. Beautiful hills and lakes.
- Dec. 7. Mrs. Life feeling better since arrival here. Strolled around Inn lawn and admired the many flowers. It's truly wonderful. Mrs. Life played croquet with lady guests. Enjoy Florida newspapers. Read where cold wave hits the East and middle West. Glad I'm in Davenport.
