

This Advertisement Is Addressed to My Friends

It is my ambition to serve the biggest and best Dinner in the City of Chicago, and its surrounding suburbs, at a minimum cost. I am, therefore, inviting you to try one of my "FAMOUS DOLLAR DINNERS," which I serve daily from 5 till 8 P. M. After the regular Dinner hour there is an a la Carte Service at a minimum price for the quality of food I serve. A Luncheon, consisting of a Soup, Meat, Potato, Vegetable, Hot Rolls and Coffee at 45c is served daily, excepting Sundays, from 11 till 2 P. M. Desserts are extra.

Special attention is given to those who wish to give their family parties at the Haylofte. Your party can be served in the Chicken Yard, which provides the privacy of a home and is adjacent to the Loft, where the Orchestra furnishes music for dancing. Our regular or special menu can be arranged to meet with your approval. Afternoon Tea and Bridge Parties are especially solicited. No extra charge is made for the tables and covers.

We gladly assist in every way to make your parties novel and entertaining. A telephone call will bring a representative to your home to assist you with suggestions.

Thanking you for past favors, I am

Most respectfully yours,

OPERA ARRANGES BIG XMAS WEEK PROGRAM

Seventh Week of Civic Opera Is Characterized as "Holi- day Lyric Feast"

The seventh week of the civic opera season at the Chicago Auditorium will present a holiday lyric feast, with three popular works making their first appearance of the season on the company's repertoire, and repetitions of some of the favorite operas. "Tiefland," originally announced for the sixth week, will be given ambitious production on the Thursday before Christmas, in an English translation prepared by Stage Director Charles Moor and Conductor Henry G. Weber, with Elsa Alsen singing a role in the vernacular for the first time.

Sunday matinee, December 19, will bring forth ever popular "Il Trovatore" as a suburban special, with Claudia Muzio, Augusta Lenska, Aroldo Lindi, Richard Bonelli and Edouard Cotreuil; Weber conducting.

Double Bill Monday

Monday evening, December 20, will bring forth ever popular "Il Trovatore" with "Witch of Salem," the American opera by Charles Wakefield Cadman, which will be repeated with the cast whose members were so well received when creating the roles for the world premiere of this opera a week ago: Irene Pavloska, Eide Norena, Augusta Lenska, Charles Hackett, Howard Preston and Jose Mojica; Weber conducting. A program of ballet divertissements will complete the bill.

Tuesday evening, December 21, Verdi's masterpiece, "Otello," will be given its first hearing of the season, with Eleanor Sawyer and Luigi Montesanto appearing in this opera for the first time in Chicago and with Charles Marshall, Alexander Kipnis, and Jose Mojica; Moranzoni conducting.

Wednesday evening the ever-popular and melodious "Martha" will be repeated with the same great cast—Edith Mason, Irene Pavloska, Tito Schipa, Virgilio Lazzari, and Vittorio Trevisan; Moranzoni conducting.

"Tiefland" in English

Thursday evening will bring the long awaited Chicago production of Eugen d' Albert's opera "Tiefland," in English, with Elsa Alsen, Lorna Doone Jackson, Irene Pavloska, Helen Freund, Forrest Lamont, Giacomo Rimini, and Alexander Kipnis; Weber conducting.

There will be no performance Friday, Christmas Eve.

Saturday, Christmas Day, "The Jewess" will be repeated as a matinee bill, with Rosa Raisa, Eide Norena, Charles Marshall, Alexander Kipnis, and Jose Mojica; with corps de ballet; Weber conducting.

Christmas Night the merry and melodious "Barber of Seville" will be sung again, this time at popular prices, with Florence Macbeth, Charles Hackett, Giacomo Rimini, Virgilio Lazzari, and Vittorio Trevisan; Moranzoni conducting.

Another big suburban special will be given at 2 p. m. Sunday, consisting of one of the most popular works in the repertoire, the details to be announced later.

Great preparations are being made for the big revival of Mozart's "Don Giovanni" (Don Juan) for New Year's Eve.

Vets in Hospital to Enjoy a Very Merry Christmas

From the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific coast, wherever a Veterans' bureau hospital harbors a disabled war veteran from Chicago, Christmas cheer from the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross will find its way this Yuletide.

Mrs. Grace Pettingill, volunteer service director of the chapter at 616 South Michigan avenue, Chicago, and hundreds of volunteer women have been busy for many days preparing the holiday messages and gifts for these 575 Chicago men, each of whom is to be remembered as an individual, and not merely as a soldier or sailor. In addition to the veterans, there are a number of disabled Red Cross nurses who will receive similar cheerful packages.

Packages bearing gifts for each of the veterans, with a plentiful supply of those minor things that lend the real holiday atmosphere—mistletoe, holly, candy, Christmas cards and so forth, are being tied up and addressed at the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross, and will be mailed out in plenty of time to reach the ex-service men before December 25.

As for the remainder of the veterans with whom the Chicago chapter has had contact, special preparations are being made to carry holiday messages to them also. Market baskets filled with savory fruit cakes, salted nuts, candy bars, small bottles of grape juice, packages of raisins, oranges, apples and individual gifts and decorated with bright poinsettias and red ribbons, will be carried to the various hospitals in and around Chicago, including the Great Lakes hospital, the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium, the Winfield sanitarium, the Veterans' hospital at North Chicago, the Speedway, Oak Forest, Chicago Fresh Air hospitals and others.

Mrs. Pettingill says that never before since the war have so many packages been sent to the veterans.
