Find It Difficult to Select Winners at Camp Fire Sale

The Camp Fire food sale held in Community House, Saturday morning, December 11, at 10:30 o'clock was pronounced the best sale ever conducted by the Winnetka Camp Fire girls. Variety, quality and attractiveness marked the articles on display, and the judging committee found it difficult to decide on the winners.

The six groups participating arranged their displays, and the judging took place before the sale was officially opened.

Judging on the three things, attractiveness of the articles, 100 percent in contribution, and variety of articles displayed, the committee, composed of Mrs. Dudley K. French, Miss Ruth Matz and Mrs. Taliaferro Milton, awarded the following groups places: for attractiveness of display, and 100 percent contribution, Miss Virginia Ogan's group, Otyokawa, received the award; for 100 percent contribution; Miss Mildred Olson's group, Akiyuhapi, Mrs. John Marshall's, and Mrs. Gilford R. Windes' group, Untaluti, Mrs. Philip Fischer's and Mrs. J. M. Wincott's group Litahni, received the award; for variety of display, Miss Olson's group, Mrs. Fischer's and Mrs. Wincott's group, and Mrs. George Eisenbrand's group, Wakamtahi, were given first, second and third places, respectively.

The $46 cleared as a result of the sale will go toward the general Camp Fire fund which takes care of the buying of the honor beads, emblems, and awards that generally would be paid for by the individuals. By giving sales this expense is taken from the individual girl and paid for out of the general fund. Special meeting expenses are met by the general fund also.

English Classes Enjoy Vacation Over Holidays

The English classes for foreigners in Community House will have a vacation during the holidays. There will be no classes Monday and Tuesday evenings of the week of December 20 and the week of December 27. These lessons will be made up at the end of the term, in the spring.

Classes will meet again as usual, beginning Monday evening, January 3.

Mrs. Francis Peabody Magoun, jr., (Margaret Boyden), of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden of 725 Pine street. Mrs. Magoun will spend Christmas and the holiday season in Winnetka.
