

Fore! Here's a Chance to Keep Fit for Golfing

Winnetka and other north shore golf enthusiasts will not have to wait until the coming of spring nor go to the basement or the garage to keep in practice with their "swings," but may now enroll, at a nominal fee, for the three months term in the Winnetka Indoor Golf school.

Not only will they be enabled to "keep in practice," but they may here perfect their game, and beginners may become so proficient by the time spring comes that they will be able to walk out on the links with a confidence in themselves that it is predicted, will be worth many times the tuition price in the Winnetka school.

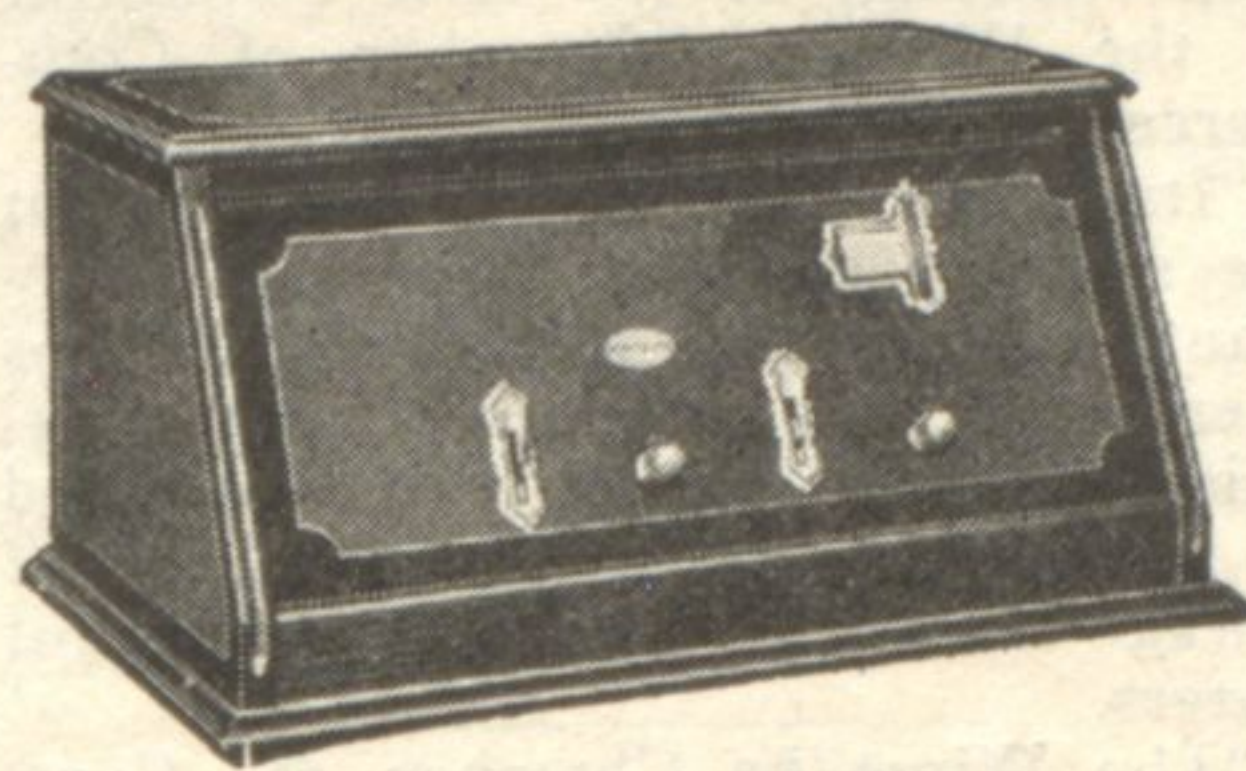

Dave Tosh, professional at Sunset Ridge Country club, and his assistant there, Ned Jamieson, are opening the school. It will be located on the third floor of the Masonic temple building and will be open every day of the week, except Sunday, and will also operate four evenings each week. The course will be three months. A member may come at any time of the day or evening and practice. It is planned to have the school open by January 6.

There will be three nets for driving and long distance shooting or any general practice. There will also be a putting course. Just how many holes Messrs. Tosh and Jamieson say, they have not yet determined. But the school will be completely equipped for all instruction and practice purposes.

Mr. Tosh served the Sunset Ridge Country club as pro last year, and so successful was his first term that he has been engaged by that club for the coming year. He came to Winnetka from LaCrosse, Wis., where he was similarly engaged for four years. Mr. Jamieson, his assistant at Sunset, came over from Scotland only last April where he "grew up in the game," and is also an efficient instructor.

George Yanos of Champaign, Ill., spent the holidays at the home of Roy A. Whipple of 170 Woodland avenue. Mr. Yanos is a member of the senior class at the University of Illinois.
