Hub Announces Annual Clearance Offerings

George Lytton, vice-president of The Hub—Henry C. Lytton & Sons, was immensely pleased with the north shore business. He adds, "Following closely on the heels of our most satisfying Christmas season our Evanston Shop this week inaugurates a series of After-Christmas and January Clearance sales that will be of far reaching interest. At clearance time, as at other times, the values of our Evanston Shop will always be outstanding. And as our entire stock is hand-picked—representing only the cream of our main store's selections, it is obvious that these clearance items are just as desirable now as they would be in the heart of the season. We do not believe you will find this situation true in any other store—anywhere. It will pay you to take liberal advantage of such decisive reductions."

Want Chicago Artist to Direct North Shore Class

An evening art class to be conducted under the direction of the North Shore Art league for its artist-members is to begin sessions at Winnetka Community House Wednesday, January 12. It is the hope of the league that it may secure the services of George Oberteuffer, instructor in painting at the Art Institute, as director of the class.

A group of pastels and architectural drawings by Charles L. Morgan will be exhibited at the January meeting of the Art league to be held at the Wilmette Woman's club Friday, January 21. Works of Mrs. Jean Coburn, the sculptress will also be shown.

Mrs. Howard H. Hoyt, Jr., of Sound Beach, Conn., formerly of Winnetka, is visiting her father, J. Edwin Bradstreet of 334 Ridge avenue. Mrs. J. Eddicott Bradstreet of 334 Ridge avenue, who has been visiting Mrs. Hoyt in the East, returned to Winnetka with her, in time for Christmas.

Miss Harrison has returned from Pine Manor school, in Wellesley, Mass., to spend the holidays with her parents, and the Misses Aitken, students at Monticello, seminary have also returned for the Christmas vacation.

NORTH SHORE HOCKEY LEAGUE OPENS SEASON

Indian Hill Squad to Compete With Highland Park Entry Sunday, January 2

The North Shore Hockey league opens its 1927 schedule January 2, when the Indian Hill team plays Highland Park on the latter's grounds, and Evanston meets Lake Forest at Lake Forest.

The complete schedule was drawn up at a meeting for the representatives of the various teams at the Harvard-Yale-Princeton club last week. At that session officers for the coming year were also elected. They are William Sibley of the Indian Hill club, president; and Ogden West, secretary. These two, together with Edward Knox of Highland Park and Harold Kerr of Evanston, will make up the executive committee of the league.

Employ Vet Line-up

The Indian Hill squad will have almost the same lineup this year that won the title last winter, and consequently is a slight favorite for the championship. However, various changes and additions in the other teams have given them more strength and they expect to put up a hot fight for premier honors.

The schedule of the teams is as follows:

January 2—Indian Hill vs Highland Park at Highland Park; Evanston vs Lake Forest at Lake Forest.

January 9—Indian Hill vs. Evanston at Indian Hill; Highland Park vs. Lake Forest at Highland Park.

January 16—Indian Hill vs. Lake Forest at Lake Forest; Highland Park vs. Evanston at Evanston.

January 23—Indian Hill vs. Highland Park at Indian Hill; Evanston vs. Lake Forest at Evanston.

January 30—Indian Hill vs. Evanston at Evanston; Highland Park vs. Lake Forest at Lake Forest.

February 6—Indian Hill vs. Lake Forest at Indian Hill; Highland Park vs. Evanston at Highland Park.

Friends and alumnae of Rockford college are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Lucy D. Herrick at the age of 98, who was associated with Anna P. Sill in the founding of Rockford college 76 years ago.

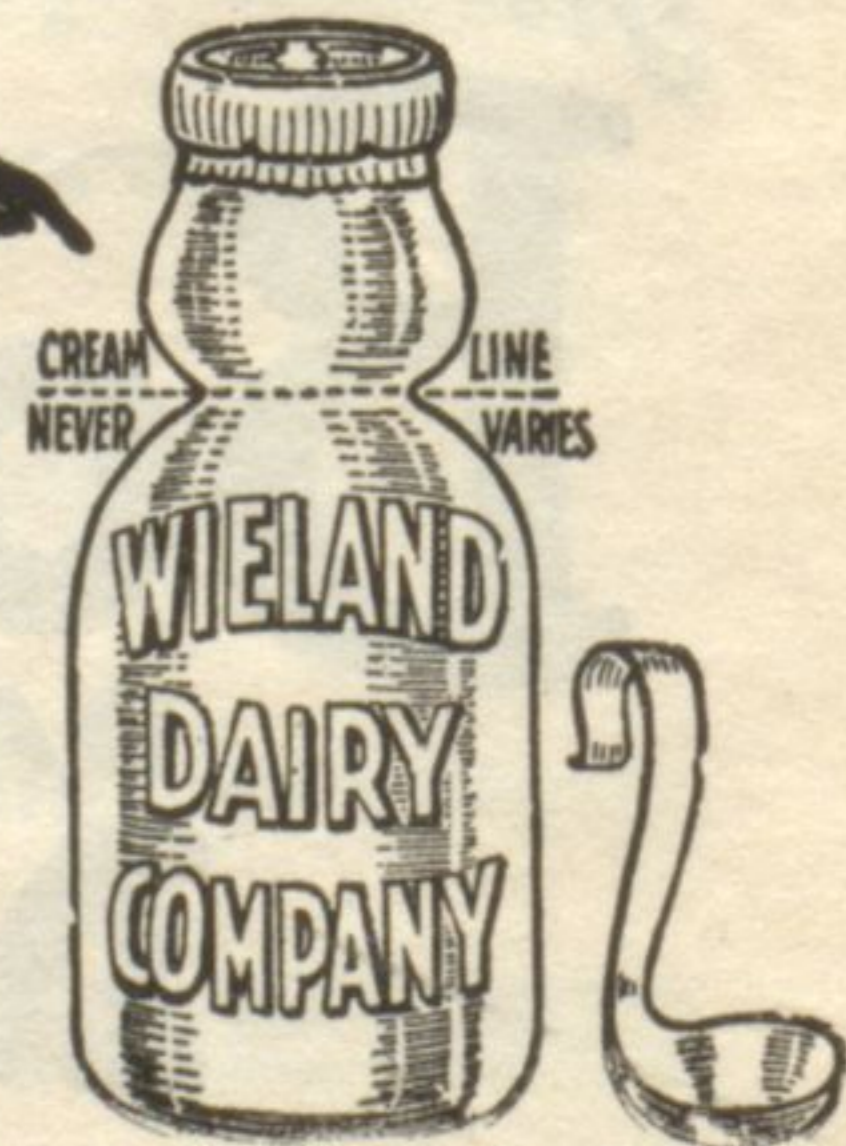

Miss Lois Nordburg, 489 Sunset road, Winnetka, gave a bridge party Friday afternoon of last week, in honor of Miss Flora Goldenbogen and Miss Lila Richter, guests from Chicago.

George Kershaw of Akron, Ohio, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bert H. Kershaw of 325 Woodland avenue, has returned to Akron.
