

North Shore Society Hails the Approach of New Year

North Shore Clubs Observe Season by Dinners and Dances

By JEAN TEN BROECK

The coming of the infant New Year to take up his abode along the north shore is being celebrated by our residents in home groups both large and small, in theaters, clubs and hotels in the city, and by many at local golf and country clubs.

The Quilmette Country club had the big event of its year last evening with its 8 o'clock dinner and dance. A large representation of Wilmette society was among those present and numerous dinner parties preceded the dancing. Among those entertaining in this manner were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zipprich, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Condy, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shoreen and Mr and Mrs. C. C. Kidd.

From 4 until 10 New Year's day, according to its annual custom, the club will hold open house for its members and their house guests

Indian Hill club planned a watch party this evening from 10 until 2. Adult members and their friends gathered to dance and enjoy the passing of the old year.

A group of the younger married set of Winnetka celebrating there the coming of 1927, included Mr. and Mrs. Brownell Bradstreet (Margaret Orde), Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt and Miss Orde of Glencoe and Mr. Knight. Among those who reserved tables for watch night are Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Pearse of Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Capron of Evanston, with two guests, also were at Indian Hill.

Included in the groups dining together and then adjourning to the club for dancing and amusement New Year's eve were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Beardslee, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Rockwell and Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Warden, all of Winnetka. The party went to the club after an informal supper and bridge at the Warden home.

Kenilworth Man Engaged

William Alfred Dockery of Dockery, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn., announces the engagement of his daughter, Frances, to James Crowell Cherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace Cherry of 422 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth.

Miss Dockery attended the Misses Thomas school in Memphis and the Finch school of New York. Mr. Cherry is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is spending the holidays at the home of his fiancée.

Mrs. Don W. Mercer of 37 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, entertained in honor of her sister, Miss Lida Raymond of Evanston, Thursday, December 30. The occasion was a luncheon and bridge given at the Indian Hill club, for thirty-six guests.

The Ash Street circle will meet Tuesday, January 4, at the home of Mrs. Jules F. Salmen of 420 Linden street at 2 o'clock. Mrs. William J. Fischer, of 388 Chestnut street, will be the assisting hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress, in accordance with their annual custom, are holding open house today in their home at 939 Green Bay road.

Off to Bermuda

Moffett Studio

After their wedding Tuesday evening, December 28, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry McAdams left on a honeymoon trip to Lake Placid and Bermuda. Mrs. McAdams was Miss Jean Dubbs of Wilmette.

Harvard Music Clubs in New Year's Eve Concert

New Year's eve at Orchestra hall will witness the famous concert given by the Harvard University Instrumental club, and will afford a pleasant early evening's entertainment for north shore residents who plan other functions for the later hours following.

Patronesses for the concert comprise a list of more than 120 names, many coming from Winnetka, Kenilworth and Glencoe. Included in the group are Mesdames Ayres Boal, Henry Bartholomay, William C. Boyden, Frank W. Blatchford, Laird Bell, F. Goddard Cheney, Heyliger A. deWindt, Raymond Durham, Percy B. Eckhart, Calvin Fentress, Robert Gay, Victor M. Harding, Lawrence A. Janney, Francis A. Lackner, George Massey, John S. Miller, Murry Nelson of Chicago, formerly of Winnetka, James Simpson, and Hathaway Watson.

Fifty musicians, members of vocal, banjo, and mandolin clubs and the "Gold Coast" orchestra will take part in the evening program. Harvard songs, jazz, and syncopation of the present day will compose the program of the four musical groups. All will combine in the final number, "Fair Harvard."

Wed Xmas Night

About fifty relatives were guests at the marriage of Miss Ruth Wilson to Edward Lawyer of River Forest which was solemnized Christmas night at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur W. Duncan of 131 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods. The Rev. Francis J. Tromp, formerly rector of the River Forest Episcopal church, officiated at the ceremony.
