

Thirteen Coppers Take Examination for Sergeant Job

This has been the week of exams at Winnetka police headquarters where all of the fifteen members of the force except two, are taking examination for appointment as sergeant. Two desk sergeants and one patrol sergeant are to be appointed. The two officers who are not writing the examination are William Burgdorf, who did not care to enter the contest, and John Dehmlow, the veteran member of the force, who, when he desires, may retire on pension.

Seventeen of the thirty-six questions were written Tuesday and the examination was to have been concluded Wednesday. Chief Peterson and Officer Harry Enault were called into Federal court on Wednesday, in the Mary Curruti case and the examination on the remaining nineteen questions was postponed.

The thirteen officers who are taking the examination are, Eugene Schubert, Ed Cummings, Rhys Fuidge, Frank Rayburn, Carl Bishop, Dudley Everett, Harold Lewis, William Cazel, Pat Murray, Charles M. Bemus, Harry C. Enault, J. G. Boyd and Christ Johanesen.

Does rather surprise folks—the way we wait upon small wants. Well, you see it's this way—there are only so many hours in a day and being pleasant doesn't cost anyone a nickel.

Dear Sirs,
I thought you might be interested in knowing that the Gill Oil Burner in my residence at 43 Crescent Drive has never required a service call. The burner was installed in April, 1923 and has been in continual operation since.

Yours respectfully,
